SchD_P10_S00_L00	Schedule D, Part X	The Credit Union is exempt, by statute, from federal and state income taxes. However, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and certain state taxing authorities are evaluating what, if any, products and services provided by state chartered credit unions are subject to unrelated business income tax (UBIT). In 2007, the IRS issued certain technical advice memoranda with respect to products and services subject to UBIT. There are currently several court cases outstanding in which credit unions have challenged assessments from the Internal Revenue Service. As a result, at this time there is uncertainty regarding whether state chartered credit unions should pay income tax on certain types of net taxable income from activities that may be considered by taxing authorities as unrelated to the purpose for which the Credit Union was granted non-taxable status. In the opinion of management, any liability resulting from taxing authorities imposing income taxes on the net taxable income from activities deemed unrelated to the Credit Union's nontaxable status is not expected to have a material effect on the Credit Union's financial position or results of operation.
SchD_P11_S00_L01	Schedule D, Part XI, Line 1	The Supervisory Committee of Board of Directors for the Credit Union annually engages an independent accountant to perform an audit of the financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The period covered by the annual audit is a fiscal year covering July 1 through June 30 of the following year. Accordingly, Parts XI, XII and XIII of Schedule D have not been completed because the audit period and the period covered by the Form 990 are substantially different.
