|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | Briefly describe the organization's mission: Gb is a secular charitable organization dedicated to implementing sustainable solutions in communities throughout the developing world. Our aim is to benefit individuals in these communities as well as the communities in whole by providing services othervise un available. We are also dedicated to empowering our volunteers through experience to understand and accept our duties as citizens of the world. |
| 2 | Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? |
| 3 | Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? |
| 4 | Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported |
| 4a | (Code: 501(c) 3) (Expenses $ 412,035 including grants of $ 381,081) (Revenue $) GB provided services and other aid to 150 communities in Honduras and 10 communities in Panama. We mobilised approximately 3000 student volunteers from 80 universities and from 3 countries. Our health programs continued and expanded services towards preventive benefits and education and also adopted the holistic approach at the communities we reached. Our medical, dental, public health, water, architectural and environmental brigades joined forces and coordinated efforts to provide extended help and perspective to the communities by addressing the multiple needs within the communities. |
| | These expenses include expenditures for medicines, the hiring of medical professionals, and purchase of physical supplies such as water purification systems, stoves, building materials and sanitation devices. |
| 4b | (Code: 501 (c) 3) (Expenses $ 1,442,121 including grants of $ 1,333,782) (Revenue $) Our student volunteers are servicing remote comunities mostly neglected or overlooked by other missionary or relief workers. Our secular approach to reach out for the betterment of the social and economic welfare of these communities is most rewarding to our volunteers and the indigenous population. Our volunteers are well received and much appreciated and our "adopted" communities are welcoming the repeat visits from them. |
| | These expenditures include the travel and in-country costs for the volunteers, such as food, housing, local transportation and security. |
| 4c | (Code: 501 (c) 3) (Expenses $ 206,017 including grants of $ 190,540) (Revenue $) Our volunteer interns are the major force behind our operation. Their service is an invaluable asset to GB and to our comunities. While gaining valuable leadership experience through direct community contact, they act as liaisons between the communities and the students, and serve as interpreters and facilitators for our projects. Between the student group visits, interns make regular visits to the comunities, monitoring ongoing projects and taking notes for surfacing needs or proposed new projects. Our model of incorporating interns as key decision makers in our organization allows us to minimize overhead costs, while developing strong leaders for the future. |
| | These expenditures include the provision of housing, food, transportation and a small stipend to cover on-the-field incidentals for our interns. It also includes expenses of logistics and site set-up-costs, comunication and training. |
| 4d | Other program services. (Describe in Schedule O.) (Expenses $ 3875 including grants of $ 3,875) (Revenue $) |

► Attach to Form 990. Employer identification number Name of the organization 1551109 37 Global Brigades, Inc. Part I, In 3. salaried officers are excluding themselves from all related discussion and votes. Part I, In 6. Estimate of volunteers. The vast majority of our volunteers are students from various universities in the US. In 2009, we had our first groups from Canada and UK. Other voulunteers are in-country and stateside interns, medical professionals, faculty advisers and administrative volunteers. Part III, lines 4a, 4b, 4c. Due to the interrelated nature of the various components of our organization, the separation of expenditures is mostly indeterminable. Our estimation based on the general view of our receipts and the aggregate amount of the total expeditures is correct. Part III, In 4d. GB provided subsidy of: $1,500 to Merrilee Chapin, our Microfinance program volunteer, who was invited to attend Gramen Trust's Global Dialogue in Bangladesh. $ 2,375 to Oscar de los Santos, to complete an AIDS related exchange project in Ghana. Part VI, In 11 Tax return was distributed by electronic means. Part VI, In 15 a/b Compensation Committee oversees proposals and performances. Evaluation is made in every 6 months. Part VI, In 19 GB has its own website, http://www.globalbrigades.org

| GB had a tremendeous growth in 2009 and our reputation has gained acknow | vledgments even at the highest level. |
| "Global Brigades is an organization that has come to Panama, hired local ind | lividuals to help manage on-the ground |
| operations, and works directly with the communities most in need. Global Br | igades works with partner organizations to |
| strenghten community impact. My view is that you don't step in and plant you | ur agenda on organizations, but rather listen |
| to a designated need and create a project to help resolve it." | |
| -Emily Boland, U.S. Embassy, Panama. Excerpt from speech given in Panar | ma City, October, 2009. |
| GB also faced the first serious challenge that tested its strength, flexibility ar | nd stability. The coup in Honduras, in June |
| 2009, struck us unexpectedly and quickly. While, in consequence, we had lar | ge number of withdrawals by individuals |
| and groups, along with a withholding of support, GB as an organization pass | ed the test with flying colors. We encountered |
| no injuries nor incidents that effected our volunteers, their safety and securit | ty was provided immediately by our partner |
| organization, Sociedad de los Ninos. GB returned to its continuing operation | as soon as the US State Department's |
| travel ban was lifted, but also extended its operations in Panama to offer dive | erse possibilities to our volunteers. |
| Our happiest moment was the completion of our "water project" in El Zurzula | ar, a community of 87 families. |
| Our volunteers stood shoulder-to-shoulder with the members of the commun | nity and by "sweat equity" they laid ca. 4 miles |
| of waterpipes to reach the reservoir at the mountain top, repaired the storage | e tank and the chlorinator, and installed a |
| complete purification and treatment system, providing all families with clean | , treated, potable water. |
| To evaluate the health benefits of this project is the task for 2010. | |
