Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990 VI	11A	---A detailed review of the Federal Form 990 was performed by the Director of Finance, the Chief Financial Officer of the Society. When the return was finalized, it was presented to the Executive Director, the Chief Executive Officer, for discussion and review. All comments were addressed and the completed return was forwarded to the Audit Committee of the Board for their review and comment. Comments were addressed and the final tax return was signed by the Chief Executive Officer.
Form 990 VI	12c	---The Society maintains a written conflict of interest policy for its officers, directors, volunteers and employees. The policy requires the annual disclosure by officers and directors of interests that could give rise to conflicts. Exceptions, if any, are evaluated by the Board. The Society implemented a new policy in 2009 that requires the disclosure of conflicts of interest by its employees.
Form 990 VI	15b	---Benchmark studies have been performed when determining the compensation to be paid for all top management. Target compensation is based on these benchmark studies. The Executive Director conducts an annual performance review for all top management against previously set objectives. The Executive Compensation Committee conducts an annual performance review for the Executive Director against previously set objectives. Merit increases are awarded annually by the Executive Compensation Committee for all top management, based on reviews. Executive incentives are awarded based on the Executive Incentive Plan.
Form 990 VI	19	---The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial information available to its members.
Form 990 VI	6,7,8	---The Society has two distinct classes of members: senior members and student members. The senior members have voting rights to elect the governing body and to make any changes to the Society of Manufacturing Engineers constitution. Student members do not have any voting rights, except the right to elect their own officers within their own student chapters.
