990 - PART III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments - Line 4d Other Program Services

Maintenance Program: In house maintenance services are provided for the properties management by the corporation.

All maintenance staff are cleared using the same process required for direct care staff. Maintenance staff also receive CPR, First Aid and Recipient Rights Training. By providing maintenance services in this manner, we are able to limit costs for the related non-profit housing corporations. We provide consistent high quality services to the tenants that exceed those required of a landlord. Very seldom are any of these costs passed to the tenant.

Our tenants have developmental disabilities and are considered to be vulnerable adults. By limiting the number of outside people they are exposed to in their housing environment, their sense of security is enhanced.

College Park Program: In home Community Living Supports provided for five tenants of this all female, handicapped accessible home. The home is centrally located and has overnight staffing provided by staff who live on site. The funding for the Community Living Supports provided for these tenants is contracted through Northern Lakes Community Mental Health.

990 - Part VI Governance, Management and Disclosure - Section B. Policies - line 11 A

During the year, financial statements are reviewed monthly by the Finance Committee, a sub-committee of the Board of Directors. After preparation, the 990 is reviewed with the Board Treasurer. Prior to mailing the completed copy, the 990 return and attachments are emailed to all current members of the board of Directors.

990 - Part VI Governance, Management and Disclosure - Section B. Policies - line 12c

Potential Board members must first complete an application process designed to disclose potential conflicts. Annually a detailed questionnaire is given to each existing board member that upon completion, will identify existing or potential issues. In addition during Board discussions, members are encouraged to disclose any situations that may arise where they could violate the Conflict of Interest policy.
