Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The term "member" means a private firm or corporation engaged in the business of providing television reception by means of a community antenna television system pursuant to a valid franchise granted by a government authority. An associate member shall be any individual, firm, group or corporation engaged in the manufacture or distribution of software, hardware or services used in or by cable television systems.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		Each system member shall be entitled to vote at all regular and special meetings of the corporation and on matters transacted by ballot vote. A subscriber is defined as a household receiving cable television service or any other telecommunications service from the member company. The number of votes is according to the number of subscribers based on a formula.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Form 990 is submitted to the Treasurer for review and approval. Upon the Treasurer's approval, the 990 is made available to the board of directors. After any concerns presented by the board are addressed, the treasurer signs and files the return.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Board members annually sign the Conflict of Interest Policy and disclose any conflicts. There have been no conflicts and no action has been required.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Treasurer annually recommends and proposes salaries for the Executive Director and key employees. Salaries are compared to industry standards and to salaries of individuals in similar positions. The Board of Directors discuss the proposed compensation during a private meeting and determines the amounts of compensation. The compensation decisions are noted to the records.
