4a	(Code	) (Expenses $	1,406,426	including grants of $	253,347) (Revenue $	2,251,282)
	The organization supports community development, provides medical goods and services, and facilitates training for those in need who cannot obtain it on their own. This is accomplished through humanitarian aid which is generally performed in partnership with other non-governmental organizations to provide medicines and other medical relief items to the sick and needy in numerous countries throughout the world. Humanitarian aid encompasses four distinct areas, to include: (1) Medical - specializing in providing healthcare solutions through medical services, self-sustaining clinics, gift-in-kind humanitarian aid, and the education of health workers (2) Education - focuses on developing health education and supporting the construction and operational support for pre-schools and primary schools (3) Training - provides technical assistance and comprehensive community development capacity building services to domestic and international partner organizations (4) Development - focuses on identification of local community assets and the cultivation of human, social, physical, environmental, and financial capital to define creative, sustainable solutions to community challenges

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The organization's Director, as appointed by the governing body, conducts a comprehensive review of the Form 990 before it is filed. A copy of the return, as ultimately filed, is provided to each member of the governing body for review before it is filed with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The organization's governing body monitors and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy on an annual basis. In the event that any officer, director, personnel or volunteer of the organization shall have any direct or indirect interest in or relationship with any organization or individual which proposes to enter into any transaction with the organization, such person shall give notice of interest or relationship. The governing body, by majority vote, will determine whether it is in conflict with the organization's best interest. The governing body will also determine whether that person will be allowed to discuss and/or (in the case of the individual being a Board member) vote on the particular transaction in which she/he has an interest. Such person shall not attempt to influence the organization, or its members, to affect a decision to participate or not participate in any transaction.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a		The process for determining the compensation and benefits of the organization's Executive Director includes 1) the review and approval by the independent voting members of the Board of Directors, 2) use of comparable compensation data and 3) contemporaneous documentation and record keeping.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available for public inspection upon request.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c		The governing body is responsible for the selection, monitoring and evaluation of an independent audit firm and oversight of the audit of its financial statements. There was no change in this process from the prior year.
