Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		Dane County Humane Society has a single category of membership for which a minimum amount of dues is required to be entitled to voting rights. The Society has five additional giving levels for those persons who contribute amounts above the minimum required dues.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		The members elect the directors of the Society at the annual membership meeting.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b		All current members, except for youth members under age eighteen, are entitled to vote at any membership meeting of the Society provided, however, that the member shall not have voting rights until he or she has been a member of the Society for three months. A special membership meeting may be called at any time by the board of directors or by any twenty-five members qualified to vote upon their filing with the president a written request for a meeting. At any membership meeting of the Society, those voting members present in person (but not fewer than twelve) have the authority to transact all business that may come before the membership meeting. Voting by proxy is not permitted at membership meetings.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Form 990 is prepared by an independent certified public accountant as part of the annual financial statement audit engagement. When completed, the Form 990 is reviewed by the Society's executive director and the board of directors. Upon approval of the completed Form 990 by both the executive director and the board of directors, the Form 990 will be filed with the IRS. Each member of the board of directors is given access to a secure section of the Society's website where a draft Form 990 resides. Notice of the posting of the updated draft Form 990 is given to each director at the meeting following the posting of the updated draft and by email from the president. The content of the updated draft Form 990 is approved by the executive director and the finance committee prior to posting. Each director is responsible for reviewing the posted draft prior to the next meeting. At the board meeting following the posting and review of the updated draft Form 990, an agenda item is added to discuss questions or concerns regarding the information contained in the Form 990. Once all issues regarding the Form 990 have been resolved, the board of directors formally approves the completed Form 990. Upon approval by the board of directors, the Form 990 is filed with the IRS. The sections of the approved Form 990 open to public inspection are posted on the Society's website once filed. The president is responsible for ensuring that this procedure is followed annually.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers are covered under the Society's conflict of interest policy. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers. After disclosure of the interest and all material facts, the interested person shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon by the remaining board or committee members. The governing board or a designated committee conducts periodic reviews to ensure the Society does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a		The performance of the executive director of Dane County Humane Society is reviewed by the board of directors on an annual basis. This review occurs within four weeks of the anniversary of the executive director's hire date. When the review has been completed and formally approved by the board of directors, the board of directors determines and approves any salary adjustment and submits the change to the Society's accountant. Approximately sixty days prior to the executive director's anniversary date, the board of directors appoints a director to lead the review effort. The lead is responsible for (a) creating a schedule to complete the review by the executive director's anniversary date, (b) soliciting completion of draft reviews by all directors, (c) soliciting completion of the review by the executive director in a self-evaluation process and sharing the self-evaluation with the board of directors, (d) compiling the draft reviews into a single, cohesive review to be approved by the board of directors, (e) meeting with the executive director to share and discuss the final cohesive review and any salary adjustment approved by the board of directors, (f) identifying any performance concerns and either developing an appropriate management support plan for the executive director or returning to the board the responsibility for management support of the executive director, and (g) sharing any pertinent discussion from the review process with the board of directors. Each director is responsible for submitting a completed annual review form to the lead director on the schedule set by the lead director. The lead then compiles all comments submitted and creates a single cohesive review that will eventually be shared with the executive director. This compiled review is presented to the board of directors and requires formal approval of the content before being shared with the executive director. This approval occurs in a closed session at the meeting of the board of directors held prior to the executive director's anniversary date. Once the board of directors approves the compiled review, the board of directors is responsible for discussing and approving any salary adjustments. Salary adjustments are put into effect through completion of a DCHS Payroll Change form and submission to the accountant. Any concerns or issues with performance are handled by the board of directors outside of the annual review process. Any salary adjustments require approval of the board of directors and should include discussion of the standard salary adjustment levels in use for other management staff at the Society. The president is responsible for ensuring that this procedure is followed annually.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Society makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
