Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The prepared Form 990 is reviewed and approved by members of the governing body before the return is filed with the IRS
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Any director or officer with knowledge of an actual or potential conflict of interest on the part of that director or officer or any other director or officer of The Rainbow Project must inform the entire governing body of the conflict. The governing body then obtains disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts. After discussion with the interested person, the interested person is required to leave the meeting while the remaining directors determine whether a conflict of interest exists. If a conflict is determined to exist, the interested person may make a presentation to the governing body but after the presentation must leave during the discussion of and the vote on the transaction or arrangement involving the conflict of interest. The governing body will investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing body will determine whether the transaction or arrangement is fair to The Rainbow Project. The transaction must be approved by a majority of the members of the governing body who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors vote to approve the transaction or arrangement, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action, except that such a transaction or arrangement cannot be approved by a single director.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a		The members of the governing body annually conduct a performance review of the executive director and review compensation data for comparable positions at similar organizations to determine the executive director's compensation. The members of the governing body approve the compensation arrangement with an official vote that is documented in the minutes of the meeting of the governing body.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
