Form 990, Part III, line 2	New Program Services	While continuing all existing programs in 2009, ERI implemented several new programs to further our mission of advancing employment opportunities and quality of life for people with disabilities. ERI implemented the Ticket to Work program that provides funding to assist Social Security beneficiaries to maintain successful employment. ERI also began working with the Wisconsin Department of Health Services to coordinate statewide training on employment and disability topics and began the development of a virtual training and technical assistance center dedicated to employment and disability topics. ERI also began a project in partnership with the Dane County Department of Human Services to assist uninsured people with mental illness with applying for public benefits. Finally, ERI implemented a new project in partnership with Dane County and a local long term care provider to offer comprehensive employment planning services to people with physical disabilities.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 3		Employment Resources, Inc. has an agreement with QTI Human Resources, Inc. to perform certain management duties related to the organization's human resources function.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The prepared Form 990 is reviewed by the organization's governing body and management before the return is filed with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Annually all directors and officers complete and sign a conflict of interest statement. The signed statements are reviewed by the members of the governing body and are kept at the organization's administrative office. Any director or officer with a conflict of interest is prohibited from participating in the governing body's deliberations and decision on the particular transaction.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
