Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

In most cases, the grants are delivered to the recipient organizations (UM churches and UM church-related charitable organizations) in person by a representative of the Foundation. Often the project or activity that is being funded is already underway or has been completed so that some inspection or review is possible at the time the grant is delivered. One year after the delivery of the grant, the Foundation sends an evaluation form to the recipient organization requesting a progress report and assessment of the project or activity. This evaluation seeks to measure outcomes and assess effectiveness. If possible, pictures are to accompany the narrative assessment. This evaluation must be returned in order for the organization to be eligible for future grants. Additional site visits may occur, but are not a systematic part of the evaluation process at this time. In general, Foundation staff have significant familiarity with all eligible grant recipient organizations and have opportunities each year to interact with the professional and volunteer leadership of the organizations.
