Part I, h, (vii)

The St. Louis County Library Foundation brought authors in to the St. Louis County Library District throughout the year to speak about their books. The Foundation incurred expenses for these author events including travel reimbursement, stage rental and light refreshments for which the District did not have to pay. The author events were a supplement to the programming that the District provides using its own revenues.

Several of these authors were part of the Read St. Louis program, which promotes reading in the community. The Foundation also paid for the promotion of the Read St. Louis program.
