Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b		The resident trust fund is an account set up to keep private funds for each of our residents to use for personal matters. Upon admission they are given the opportunity to deposit money of their own into an account that we track for them. This money is kept in the office and can be accessed whenever they want. We keep a certain amount available for withdrawals and the rest is deposited into an interest bearing account. The interest is divided between the accounts, based on the amount earned and the amount each resident has in their account. Upon discharge, the balance, including interest is refunded.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The Organization undergoes an annual analysis of its various tax positions, assessing the likelihood of these positions being upheld upon examination with relevant tax authorities, as defined by the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The Organization believes that they are compliant with all IRS tax regulations and as of December 31, 2009 have not recorded liabilities for income taxes.
