Statement 2

This entity provides a Heritage Village and Museum in Grafton, ND and cares for other historically significant materials and buildings. It also maintains a historical site at a location called "Uncle Sig's Jugville" that has various buildings and property. All of this is done at no charge to the public who may come in and tour these historical buildings and view other historically valuable property to learn about the heritage and pioneers that came to this area many years ago. This provides a valuable educational benefit to our community for this organization to preserve and care for these items.
