They also provided chaplaincy services in the assisted living. To address the growing need for long-term care services and expand services to the community, Bethany Homes plans to develop a new senior living community, scheduled to open in early 2010. To be located in southwest Fargo, it will not replace the current campus but rather will complement it. The new campus will initially include 78 skilled nursing beds (including a 26-bed transitional care unit), 40 assisted living apartments, and a supporting community town center. Plans for future expansion phases are being analyzed. Bethany Homes plans to fund the new campus through tax-exempt bond financing, an equity contribution from Bethany Homes, and philanthropic support. A capital campaign has been launched, and Bethany will seek voluntary philanthropic support from community members to help underwrite the cost of constructing a new health care campus that will serve the region's elderly.
