Expenses (Required for 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) trusts; optional for others.)
28 Student Summer Placement Program places up to 14 young people with local businesses, non-profit organizations and institutions for work experiences. The students learn to fill-out a presentable application, make an impressive job interview, and actively participate in on-the-job training with the host organization. These relationships usually grow to longer lasting job placements as the students are required to complete their commitments before pay is received. Of the 36 placements in the previous three (3) years, 19 participants continue in some capacity with their host organizations. C A B A has also utilized youth workers in community service projects giving them a sense of ownership of their neighborhoods. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . ☐	28a	13,463
29 In promoting community enhancement, C A B A provided refuse containers along the Central Avenue corridor, large planters with seasonal flowers, and facilitated beautification projects. In 2009 C A B A placed 8 oversized terra-cotta planters and partnered with smaller community groups with the selection and planting of flowers. With funds from the local utility, lights were provided for the 6 vest-pocket parks along Central Avenue, and with funds from the Unified Government, American flags were maintained in these parks. With funds from the SER Corporation, C A B A provided a training post for an elderly individual assisting with tasks in archiving and storing organizational documents gathered over the years. 30 Monthly Breakfast Meetings held the third Wednesday of each month are attended by 55-60 residents, business, and property owners. A guest speaker covers issues related to the community's better quality of life. An example would be reports from department heads of the Unified Government including Code Enforcement, Solid Waste Collection, Community Police, Community Housing Partners, etc. Approximately 600 people attended these breakfasts.
