Part III, 4D - Other Program Services - Family and youth services include workshops on fatherhood, new and impending motherhood, and other issues related to developing strong and orderly families. This also included the sponsorship of a monthly art loop to provide a social setting for the entire family and introduction of visual and performing artists. The agency also provided weatherization and discounted energy programs to residents throughout the city. These were designed to decrease long-term heating and electric bills as well as increase the value of the properties.
