Part III, Line 1a		Museum Collection - The Academy does not capitalize its museum collection held for public exhibition and education. The Academy's policy requires the collection to be protected, unencumbered, preserved and the proceeds from sales of collection items used to acquire other items for the collection. Contributed collection items or gains from the sale of collection items are not recognized as revenue. The Academy has insured its collection for $1,690,000, which management estimates is approximately its replacement cost.
Part III, Line 4		Part of the mission of the organization is to remember and care for aeromodeling history through preserving the physical legacy of the sport. The collection includes three dimensional objects relating to aeromodeling that help convey the story, evolution, and importance of the aeromodeling experience. The collection contains approximately 8,000 artifacts including model airplanes, radio systems, engines, building tools and equipment. The museum collects and preserves the historic, scientific, technical and artistic legacy of model aviation and educates the public utilizing exhibits and programming.
