Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedures	Part VI	PURPOSE The purpose of the conflicts of interest policy is to protect The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest and private benefit applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations. POLICY All Board officers, directors, committees, and staff have an obligation to conduct The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health's business according to policies and procedures to avoid actual or potential conflicts of interest. I. Definitions 1. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health has a transaction or business arrangement; b. A compensation arrangement for personal services with The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or business arrangement; or c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health is negotiating a transaction or business arrangement. 2.2 Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial. 2.3 Resolving conflicts of interest. Under Section II - 2, a person who has a potential conflict of interest may resolve that situation if the appropriate Executive Committee/Designated Director decides that a conflict of interest exists under the procedures stated in that Section. II. Procedures 1. Duty to Disclose. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon by the members present. 3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest a. An interested person may make a presentation at the Board meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. b. The President shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. If the potential conflict of interest involves them, President, The Treasurer shall appoint an investigator. Any findings made by the appointed investigator/committee will be presented to the Board. c. After exercising due diligence, the Board shall determine whether The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible, the Board shall determine, by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, whether the transaction or arrangement is in The Foundation for Contemporary Mental Health's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. 4. A. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If Board has reasonable cause to believe any person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform that that person of the basis for such belief and afford that person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. b. III. Records of Proceedings. The minutes of the Board shall contain: A. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to Board's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed. b.
