Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Organization has its Form 990 prepared by an outside accounting firm and has established the following review process to ensure that the information reported is complete and accurate. When the Form 990 has been prepared, reviewed by management and is ready to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service, it is submitted to the organization's CFO for any comments prior to its submission.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The Board members are each required to disclose any interests that may lead to a conflict on a yearly basis. They are made aware of the vendors being used and are required to sign a form that states they have no interests in any of the listed vendors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a		Executive compensation is determined first by a review of salaries for comparable positions of other executives in the NYC region. Data is collected from a number of sources that are available at US Bureau of Labor Statistics and other sources. Then the board reviews and approves the salary of the executive director and president.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Organization makes its Form 990 available for public inspection as required for under section 6104 of the Internal Revenue Code by posting it on guidestar.org and other similar types of websites. In addition, Forms 990 as well as the financial statements, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available upon written request.
