Arts & Humanities • Community Endeavors • Education • Health & Human Services • Journalism & Communications

About the Fund

Established in 1963, the Fund is named in memory of Philip L. Graham, who was publisher of The Washington Post from 1946 to 1961 and president of The Washington Post Company from 1947 to 1963. Gifts from his widow, the late Katharine Meyer Graham, his friends, and The Washington Post Company formed the initial corpus of the Fund. From its inception, the Fund's mission has been to use its resources for the betterment of the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area and to support activities that foster improvements in the fields of journalism and communications. The Fund is governed by a five-member Board of Trustees.

Reflective of its determination to respond to a wide range of community needs, the Fund's grants lists are broad and varied. Grants are awarded across five interest areas, including Arts & Humanities, Community Endeavors, Education, Health & Human Services, and Journalism & Communications. Grantees include both large, regional organizations as well as small, community-based groups; all share a commitment to our community. The Fund awards grants across fifteen jurisdictions in the metropolitan area. For a listing of recent grants, please see the Grants Awarded section of this site.

How to Apply

The Philip L. Graham Fund follows a two-step application process. Organizations interested in applying for funding from the Philip L. Graham Fund must first submit a letter of inquiry (LOI) through our online application system prior to one of three deadlines each year. Before submitting an LOI, applicants should review the Fund's interest areas and qualifications for funding to ensure the organization's request fits within the Fund's giving priorities. Please keep in mind that while consideration is occasionally given to other requests, the Fund remains committed to primarily funding requests for special, one-time needs of organizations (e.g., equipment and capital needs) rather than general operating or program support. Multiyear grants are awarded rarely.

The Fund is currently accepting letters of inquiry. Applications will be accepted until 5:30 p.m. EDT on July 15, 2010.

If you are entering a new request, please click on the link below to begin the application process. New users will be asked to create an online account using an email address and password. Please be sure to keep a record of the email address and password that is used to create the account as this information will be needed to access the in-process application. Applications are associated with one and only one account. Once the account is created you will be directed to the application form.

To begin a new application click here:

http://www.grantrequest.com/SID_1150/?SA=SNA&FID=35007

If you are a returning applicant and would like to access an in-process application, view a read only version of a past application, or if you have been invited to submit a full proposal, please click on the link below to access the Account Login screen:

Applicants will be notified of the Fund's interest via e-mail within one month of each LOI deadline. An invitation to submit a full proposal does not guarantee funding.
