Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The organization is organized as an association with members. Active members have the right to vote for the Board of directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		Active members are entitled to vote for the governing body/Board of directors. The officers and members of the governing body are elected at the Annual Meeting of the Association, or any special meeting called and held for that purpose. In absence of this meeting the Board of Directors can fill vacancies during the year.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Association will electronically send a copy of the 2009, 990 tax return to the Board of Directors prior to filing the return with the IRS. This will serve as a communication to the Board of Directors regarding the information contained in the return and that the return is in the process of being filed.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		board members and key staff are required to annually sign a document inquiring if there are any conflicts of interest.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The president, senior vice presidents, and vice presidents compensation were reviewed by an outside third party consulting firm in the 2nd quarter of 2009. The consulting firm collected comparable compensation data from similar organization's 990 tax returns and compensation surveys of other like organizations. Compensation recommendations were made to the association's Personnel Committee and the executive group of the Board of Directors. The Personnel Committee approved the recommendations in October 2009. 15b The association retains an independent outside compensation consulting firm to review and compare salaries of other officers and key employees with comparable positions within the industry. The results are presented to the Personnel Committee of the governing body for approval.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		the association does not make its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, or financial statements available to the public at the present time.
