Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	As of December 31, 2009, the Association's spending policy for endowment funds was to not distribute any amounts from the funds until such assets had reached a minimum of $1 million. Such level was met during 2009, due to one estate gift, from which investment income is restricted to capital campaign projects up to $250,000 over a period of no less than 5 years. Please note that the prior year endowment balances reflect a prior period adjustment to agree to new auditing standards.
Part X	Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	The YMCA of Northwest North Carolina (Association) is entitled to exemption from federal and North Carolina income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as a charitable organization, accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not reflect a provision or liability for federal and state income taxes. The Association has determined that it does not have any material unrecognized tax benefits or obligations as of December 31, 2009.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d	Statement of Program Service Accomplishments	Community & Family Outreach 1 The Graduating our Future Initiative is a collaboration between the YMCA of Northwest North Carolina, Family Services and Big Brothers Big Sisters This United Way funded collaboration is a comprehensive program designed to address the high school graduation rates within the Parkland Magnet High School and Philo Magnet Academy communities The elements of academic support, family support, student engagement and positive role modeling are all integral parts in our approach to addressing high school graduation and truancy Key components include after school tutoring, concentrated tutoring efforts focused around end-of-course testing, a two-week summer readiness program, and family counseling and mentoring In 2009, there were more than 13,000 tutoring hours documented and 156 students benefited from the summer readiness programs 2 Raising literacy levels is an integral part of our mission of "Helping people reach their God-given potential in spirit, mind and body " The YMCA of Northwest North Carolina provides an array of literacy services primarily through our principal program, the Literacy Initiative - an adult reading one-on-one tutorial program for both native English speakers, as well as, English as a Second Language (ESL) During 2009, the Adult Reading Program served 50 students with 42 volunteers The ESL Program served 58 students with 41 volunteers The El Nido Family Literacy Program uses the Motherhead/Fatheread model to teach literacy and English language skills to immigrant families in the evenings During 2009, 150 individuals received this service at no cost The Toyota Family Literacy Program uses the same model, but takes place during the school day and served approximately 60 families in 2009 at no cost Our Davie Reads program, also a one-on-one tutorial program, served 23 people in 2009, most of whom were learning English as a second language 3 In recognition of the National Day of Prayer, each of the YMCA facilities hosted an annual Prayer Breakfast in May These events brought together 868 members of the communities served to pray, fellowship, hear speakers and music 4 YMCA Adventure Guides is a parent-child program designed to help foster understanding and companionship, and to strengthen the relationship between children and their fathers Participants join a "Circle" of other father/child groups and participate in games, camping trips, ceremonies and family adventures Adventure Guide compass points - family, nature, community, fun and the YMCA character development values - provide a sense of direction and inspiration for activities The immediate gain of YMCA Adventure Guides is evident - spending time together - but the long term gains are even more significant in the relationships built between parents and children In 2008, this program served 270 pairs of fathers and children 5 The YMCA of Northwest North Carolina has strong international ties through long standing partnerships with YMCAs in Mexico and the Ukraine Our relationships have fostered child care and preschool programs in Mexico and an HIV/AIDS education in Ukraine Additionally, these international relationships have provided internship opportunities on both sides, as well as service learning camps for our own young people 6 Achievers is a mentoring program for Hispanic ESL high school students (grades 9-12) The Achievers program was established in 2002 and redesigned in 2006 to address the growing drop-out rate of Hispanic students in the Forsyth County high schools This program was first offered to Hispanic ESL students at Reynolds High School in 2006 and in February 2007 reached out to students at North Forsyth High School, East Forsyth High School and Parkland Magnet High School Achievers partners with Hispanic and bilingual professionals (Adult Achievers) in career fields such as finance, media/communications, business, health/medical, education, and law/government and encourages academic achievement, social development and personal growth among Hispanic youth Achievers uses a career-based curriculum and offers monthly Lunch and Learn sessions as well as a diverse choice of monthly educational field trips and an end-of-year recognition banquet In 2009, Achievers served 200 youth through the mentoring of 38 volunteers (Adult Achievers) The original Achievers Program was funded by a federal grant from the Department of Education It is now funded by United Way and also sponsored by the Hispanic League of the Piedmont Triad 7 Through collaboration with the Green St Methodist Church and the Second Harvest Food Bank we operate the Green Street Kids Cafe Kids Cafe is an after school program where students receive assistance with homework, enrichment activities and a nutritious dinner During 2009, we operated one Cafe that served a total of 30 students 8 Nearly 145 Hispanic parents learned how to become a part of their children's educational success in the Hispanic Family Mentoring Program 9 The Older Adult Program develops seniors into an active, health-conscious social circle of friends and participants This program is structured for active (or not so active if they so choose) older adults Organized trips are planned on a monthly basis from September through May for both YMCA members and non-YMCA members The group is encouraged to attend free monthly health-related workshops presented by various professionals from Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center and Best Health Fitness classes developed especially for older adults are also available 10 YMCA programs are designed to attract people of all ages, all abilities, and all incomes YMCA financial assistance policies help low-income people gain access to the YMCA

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Statement of Program Service Accomplishments Team Sports & Skill Development 1 Team sports are provided at both the youth and adult levels The youth basketball program had over 3,000 boys and girls under the age of 18 participate and they were coached by over 500 volunteer coaches Each youngster played a minimum of one-half of each game with a values session conducted before each game The program collaborates with local school systems and churches in order to have adequate gym space Other team sports include youth soccer (3,000+), flag football (480+), adult basketball (150 teams), youth baseball (670+), volleyball (100+), and roller & field hockey (75+) With all YMCA sports, the intent is for the participants to have fun while learning to play the sport in an environment that places winning as secondary Parents and volunteers work together to make each season special for every team member 2 YMCA programs are designed to attract people of all ages, all abilities, and all incomes YMCA financial assistance policies help low-income people gain access to the YMCA Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Statement of Program Service Accomplishments Aquatics & Water Safety 1 Lessons in swimming teach aquatic skills to youth and adults (ages 6 months through senior citizens) Swimming is a life long activity that improves health and fitness in addition to teaching kids and families to be safe in and around water At the Davie Family YMCA, a partnership with the Davie County Schools and the United Way of Davie County provides every 2nd grade student with the opportunity to learn how to be safe in and around water through the Water Safety Education In 2009, 534 students received this instruction at a value of over $20,000 2 Over 200 children and adults of all income levels took part in one free week of water safety awareness/swim lessons at the Wilkes Family YMCA Additionally, we partnered with the Wilkes County Schools' More at Four program to provide swim lessons for over 700 pre-K students These free services have a value of over $60,000 and are funded in part by the United Way of Wilkes County ($38,000) 3 Aquatics for Special Needs is a collaborative effort through various school systems to provide swim lessons to special needs students Water provides an environment where these students can be successful Approximately 100 students participate annually, with many going on to compete in the Special Olympics 4 Warm water recreational activities/exercises help improve activities for daily living and provide rehabilitation activity for those recovering from auto accidents and strokes Activities also improve range of motion and joint mobility for people with arthritis or senior citizens who wish to improve their level of fitness as well as socialization 5 Aquatic safety and lifeguard training provides opportunities for individuals to further develop aquatic safety skills for YMCAs, local pools and homeowners' associations Classes are offered throughout the year 6 Competitive and developmental swimming provides activities for swimmers of all ages from five years old through adult This program not only improves physical fitness and enhances aquatic skills, but also teaches the importance of teamwork, goal orientation and time management Over 320 swimmers were directly involved with our year-round YMCA swim team with an additional 500+ area summer league swimmers involved in YMCA sponsored competitive events During 2009, our YMCA swimmers participated in various national and international events and boasts three graduating seniors who will be receiving college scholarships for their swimming efforts YMCA aquatic facilities are also utilized by area high school swim teams for practices and competitions 7 YMCA programs are designed to attract people of all ages, all abilities and all incomes YMCA financial assistance policies help low-income people, who are less likely to exercise and have adequate health care, gain access to the YMCA Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Statement of Program Service Accomplishments Youth & Teen Leadership 1 Our Youth & Government Program introduces local middle and high school students to the legislative process of city, county, state, national, and international governments through a hands-on approach Programs such as Youth Legislature (culminates with a weekend trip to the state capital in Raleigh where the students author, introduce and vote to accept or reject bills of their own creation), Conference on National Affairs, and Model UN enable young people to prepare for moral and political leadership through training in the theory and practice of developing public policy Students sharpen their leadership skills and improve their problem solving and critical thinking abilities while becoming more adept at debating and public speaking In 2009, 571 students from middle and high schools within our Association participated in these programs, many returning home with recognition awards and having been elected to a state office by their peers 2 Leader's Club is a leadership training program based on physical education that not only helps middle and high school students in their personal health and fitness goals but allows them to learn how to lead others in achieving their fitness goals Volunteer service and community service are key components to this teen leadership program Participants attend lectures that range from business etiquette to public speaking The program is designed to foster good citizenship, moral responsibility and civic involvement In 2009, approximately 40 students in two counties participated in this program, 15 of whom attended Blue Ridge Leaders School 3 The Black Achievers Program gives 148 teens (9th - 12th grade) in Forsyth County direct access to 40 volunteer leaders (adult achievers) representing business and industry, public health and safety, education and community based organizations Our volunteers serve as role models and nurturing figures who emphasize the importance of education The program provides career exploration with student achievers working with adult achievers to learn about different career paths - architecture and engineering, health and medical, business, education, computers, etc Additionally, college preparation is encouraged with SAT preparation and college tours being a part of the nine-month program The graduating teens compete for college scholarships and awards 4 In 2009, the YMCA of Northwest North Carolina hosted an additional Christian Leadership Conference (CLC) at Camp Hanes just for teens 243 attendees from 5 different YMCAs from all regions of North Carolina attended training workshops with a Christian emphasis in programming and fellowship Teens were divided into team groups with college mentor leaders CLC is a longstanding program in the YMCA, and due to the success of the 2009 event, the YMCA of Northwest North Carolina has been selected again to host this event in the winter of 2010 5 Each month, an average of 400 middle school and high school kids gather at Ys in all five counties (on either Friday or Saturday nights) from 6 p.m. until 11 p.m. to participate in games, activities, swimming, team building and asset development These programs ("Middle School Madness" or
