Dear Mr. and Mrs. Graham,

Thank you very much for your gift of $10,000.00 dated December 29, 2009 through the Trudy Scammon Foundation. The commitment of Oxfam members like you enables us to implement our innovative and effective programs that fight poverty and injustice around the globe.

To achieve lasting progress, Oxfam works with local communities so they can address the root causes of poverty themselves. We provide practical assistance to help people become self-sufficient, respond to humanitarian emergencies, and stand up for their rights. And while we are deeply committed to our community-based work, we also recognize that there are larger barriers that can keep people in poverty. To tackle these obstacles, we advocate for national and international policy change.

Over the past year, people living in the world's poorest communities have faced many challenges. They have been affected by a global economic crisis, changing weather patterns that lead to increased droughts, floods, and cyclones, and a devastating food crisis that has left more than one billion people chronically hungry. Oxfam's proven solutions are needed now more than ever.

Thank you again for your continued partnership with us. It is because of supporters like you that we have the knowledge, the compassion and the means to affect change for millions of people around the world.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Scadding
Development Officer

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Graham:

Thank you very much for your gift of $1,000.00 through The Trudy Scammon Foundation. We received your donation on 12/28/2009.

Your gift will assist Columbia Springs in achieving its mission to engage the community in environmental education within an urban setting. Your past support has assisted Columbia Springs in offering students opportunities to learn using all their senses and to connect scientific concepts to real world experience. At Columbia Springs they see, hear and do while exploring science, social studies and math.

Thank you for supporting this important work! We are excited about the upcoming year and your generous gift will make our work possible.

Sincerely,
