Other revenues non included on Form 990 (Part XII, line 2d)

Tax Return has been filed on the cash basis from inception of the organization. Financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principled (GAAP). Accordingly, billing income and grant income receivable was recorded for GAAP purposes and for proper presentation in the financial statements.

Billing income was significant for the first time in the year 2009 due to the growth of the organization. Receivables grew more rapid than collection did.

01. Organizational document changes (Part VI, line 4)

By-laws of organization were amended to comply with community health center funding requirements pertaining to board meetings, board members and committees.

02. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

After return is prepared by the accounting firm, the return is reviewed by the CFO and CEO. Following its review and completion, the return is forwarded electronically to all board members. If a board member does not have an e-mail, the member is called to pick-up a copy of the return. The return is then presented to Executive Director for signature.

03. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

Board members are required to sign annually a statement that they have complied with the conflict of interest policies and its required disclosures.

04. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

Salaries for CEO are first discussed at the executive committee level. At that time, comparative information is provided including but not limited to other statewide community health centers and other non-profit organizations of similar size. Also utilize information provided by SCANPO and NACHC through salary surveys and publications. Experience, expertise, trends and responsibilities of the given position are taken into consideration in determining compensation and benefits. A recommendation from the executive committee is made to the full board for vote. Minutes at both meetings capture the information, deliberation and decisions made.
