Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
form 990, part i, line 1	community involvement	John Knox Village of Florida, Inc (the Village) is committed to being an active, valuable partner in the civic community This commitment is accomplished in part through the Sharing and Caring program The program provides opportunities for residents and staff members to give back to others and is becoming a vital component in filling the needs of the underserved and uninsured in the Pompano Beach community As a provider of healthcare services to the senior population, the Village has long been a sponsor and contributor to the American Cancer Society through the Relay for Life, the American Heart Association through the Heart Walk and the Alzheimer's Association through the Alzheimer's Walk because these diseases touch so many people in our community As part of a philosophy centered on wellness, the Village residents and employees participate in the Heart Walk and the Alzheimer's Walk on our beautiful 64 acre campus Since 2003, the Village has sponsored the Survivor's reception for the local Relay for Life This past year, approximately 125 cancer survivors, many from John Knox Village, were treated to a beautiful reception in honor of their success and continuing struggle to fight cancer As a sponsor for these three organizations, the Village helped raise over $65,000 for the community during 2009 A spirited group of employee nurses, retired resident nurses and staff members have been traveling through the local community on the Health for Life bus that has been nicknamed "Bessie " The Village took an old passenger bus from its transportation fleet and converted her into the Health for Life bus Bessie allows nurses from the Village to join hands with local organizations and provide health and wellness advice for the underserved in our community The services they are able to offer include blood pressure checks, bone density tests, teaching of self-breast exams, medication consultations and other health assessments This group is dedicated to using their knowledge, skills and caring hearts to promote awareness of healthy living to the community For the second year, the Village sponsored the Silver Angels program The Village worked with local churches and synagogues to identify outstanding, caring seniors in the Pompano Beach community Ten individuals were nominated from their congregations for selflessly aiding others with their time, talents and efforts Each angel was celebrated at a beautiful dinner and awarded for their commitment and dedication to others Village residents and employees experienced a marvelous opportunity to share St Patrick's Day with the clients of Northeast Focal Point Northeast Focal Point is a senior center that provides a variety of social, recreational, educational and wellness programs for elders in Broward County The Village partnered with The United Way to host an afternoon dance with Big Band music and delicious treats The St Patrick's Day Dance provided a wonderful opportunity to expand our services to seniors into the Broward County Community St Laurence Chapel, a local organization that provides services for the homeless, is one of the main recipients of our residents' and employee's generosity Monthly donations are provided to St Laurence from the resident Chapel Committee The annual white sock drive is held every year at Thanksgiving to collect new, white socks for the homeless This past year, over 1,000 pairs of socks were collected and given to St Laurence Chapel The Resident Auxiliary Service, a resident volunteer group providing services for the welfare of the residents of John Knox Village, collects and sorts through clothing and furniture donations throughout the year Clothing and furniture donations estimated at approximately $17,500 were distributed to St Laurence Chapel, the Salvation Army, Imperial Point Medical Center, Holy Cross Hospital, Aid to Victims of Domestic Abuse, the Department of Veterans Affairs, and Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church Many Village residents, employees and family members have served in the military In an effort to give back to these courageous men and women, the Village donated $10,000 to an association serving veterans and their family members to purchase phone cards to call home during the holidays In addition, 10 cases of Girl Scout cookies were sent overseas through the Cookies for the Military program John Knox Village was proud to contribute to the Fallen Hero's program at Pompano Beach High School This program honors all military personnel who have given their lives since the War on Terrorism began by planting a flag for each soldier As residents of South Florida, Village residents and employees are keenly aware of the needs that arise after a natural disaster The Village was able to join forces with the JKV Rotary Club in providing Shelter Boxes for victims of a natural disaster The Shelter Box provides a tent and other supplies to assist up to 10 people for a minimum of six months The JKV Rotary Club raised donations to purchase 2 Shelter Boxes and the Village matched that contribution by purchasing 2 more As a member of the business community, the Village actively participates in the Chamber of Commerce, the local Historical Society and other functions in the City of Pompano Beach The Village was a proud sponsor this year of the Pompano Beach Fishing Rodeo, whose goal is to promote awareness of marine conservation The Village sponsored the first annual breakfast for the Sample-McDougald Preservation Society, generating donations to the society in excess of $17,000 Education is an important component of building the future of our community and both students and teachers are highly valued at the Village The annual school supply drive for employees is one of the best examples of the spirit of sharing and caring that is such a part of the Village Residents and employees provide donations of money and new school supplies to ensure that children are properly equipped to begin a new school year The backpacks full of school supplies are provided to line staff with school age children This past year, over 120 children were given the tools they need for a successful school year In an effort to expand this program to the community, the Village adopted a local elementary school and outfitted 10 classrooms with the supplies they needed for the school year In addition, the Village contributed to the back to school drive organized by a local church to provide supplies to at-risk children in the local community To honor the teachers in our area, the Village was a proud sponsor of the Teachers' Appreciation Luncheon through the Pompano Beach Chamber of Commerce The holidays are always such an enjoyable time for Village residents and employees and provide the perfect opportunity to share with the community The Village increased its financial support of the local food banks this year in an effort to respond to the economic crisis in the United States, providing over $20,000 in support for local organizations serving the needy The Harvest Drive is an organization run through the Broward County public schools whereby children become involved in helping other children Village residents and employees joined together to organize a food drive and provide financial assistance as well Every year, the Village sponsors a collection for the Marine Corps Toys for Tots campaign in conjunction with the annual Chamber of Commerce breakfast hosted on campus Employees donated almost 500 toys to help brighten the holidays for underprivileged children Village residents and employees work hand in hand with the Boys & Girls club to sponsor an annual Christmas Party, complete with presents and Santa Claus for local children In addition, Village employees participate in a Secret Santa program for health center residents The employees purchase gifts to be shared with the residents at the Christmas party, making sure that every resident has a gift to open Other areas where residents and employees give back to the community include fund raisers for local little league teams, collection of eye glasses, cell phones and hearing aides for the Lion's Club, participation in career day activities for local schools, clothing donations to the Salvation Army and scholarship sponsorships for Broward County students Because charity does begin at home, Village residents have a special affinity to volunteering within the Village itself Whether it is residents who visit other residents in the health center or residents who volunteer by answering phones, the Village is the grateful recipient of their spirit of giving Almost 500 Village residents offer their time and talent to make the Village a wonderful, caring place to live

The Village provides meeting space to many organizations that serve the local community. In 2009, the Village welcomed the following organizations to its campus: - Al-Anon - Association of Older Lutheran Adults - Broward Library Foundation - Broward Musicians Association - Broward Personal Computer Association - Daughters of the American Revolution - First Christian Church - First Presbyterian Church Ft. Lauderdale - First Presbyterian Church Pompano - Florida Lifecare Retirement Association - Fort Lauderdale Garden Club - Holy Cross Hospital - Hospice of SouthEast Florida - League of Women Voters - National Association of Retired Federal Employees - PEO - Presbytery of Tropical FL - Pompano Beach Chamber of Commerce - Pompano Beach Garden Club - Pompano Economic Group - Second Presbyterian Church - Sigma Alpha Iota - St. Martin-in-the-Field Episcopal Church - Toastmasters International - United Way. The future of the Sharing and Caring program is exciting. The Village is determined to continue sharing its resources with the wider community.
