1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

To revitalize the North Midtown neighborhood while also serving as a magnet drawing together the various people, groups, institutions, and agencies that are stakeholders in the community. This corporation places its primary focus on improvement of residential quality of life, elimination of substandard housing, boosting the overall neighborhood education level, promotion of economic development, and community leadership. The NMCDC recognized that many hands are needed to turn around a community. We pride ourselves for the use of a holistic approach that enables us to help the people of the North Midtown. With this in mind, the NMCDC began its journey of service that is central to our work with the involvement of neighborhood residents as active learners and partners, and not merely receivers of service.
