Form 990-EZ: Exempt purpose

Attachment A

The dissemination of technical & trade information related to the candle industry.

Form 990-EZ: Line 28, Description

Attachment B

The publication of a greatly improved quarterly newsletter " Punto de Fusion" (with larger circulation) has been a great success, especially the Dr. Vela column that is specifically geared to answer the questions that candle manufacturers might have in the manufacturing of their candles.

The year ended withn the highest number of members (128) since the founding of the association. Out of that number, 88 are candle manufacturers that have manufacturing plants located throughout Latin America.

The 2009 annual Conference of the Association was held during June 2009 in Medellin, Columbia. It was attended by approximately 154 manufacturers and suppliers of the candle industry. Highlight of this conference was the Trade Show that took place as one of the activities of the conference. Sixteen local and worldwide suppliers of the industry were exhibitors at the Trade Show.

ALAFAVE continued to gift its new candle manufacturers members the C/D released by the American Society of Testing Materials (ASTM) containing the existing six candle standards that apply to the candle industry. The Dissemination of this very important technical information will help to improve the manufacture of safe candles by Latin American candle manufacturers.
