Policies and procedures are the same for all organization locations

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11A - Organization's Process to Review Form 990
The Audit Committee reviews the Form 990 per the Board of Directors' instruction. Subsequent to this review, the Form 990 is sent to the Board of Directors, and management and the Audit Committee respond to Board of Directors' questions and resolve all issues prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

Conflict of Interest Disclosure Forms are completed by all Board members annually, and are reviewed and signed by the Board Chair. Conflict of Interest Disclosure Forms are also completed annually by management staff and reviewed and signed by the CEO. It is the continuing responsibility of the board, officers, and management employees to scrutinize their transactions and outside business interests and relationships for potential conflicts and to immediately make such disclosures and update their annual disclosures.

At the beginning of every Board meeting, the Chair asks members to disclose whether they have any conflict of interest pertinent to the meeting agenda. If any are disclosed, the member is excused so that the Board can discuss and determine whether the conflict is material enough to preclude the Board member's participation in the discussion and/or vote.

Transactions with parties with whom a conflicting interest exists may be undertaken only if all of the following are observed:

1. The conflicting interest is fully disclosed at the meeting, prior to the discussion.

- 2. The person with the conflict of interest is excluded from the discussion and approval of such transaction;
  - 3. A competitive bid or comparable valuation exists; and
- 4. The board or a duly constituted committee thereof has determined that the transaction is in best interest of the organization.

Disclosures of conflicts involving staff are made to the CEO (or if she or he is the one with the conflict, then to the board chair), who shall bring the matter to the attention of the board chair, (or if she or he is the one with the conflict, then to the board vice-chair) who shall bring these matters to the board or a duly constituted committee thereof.

The Board or a duly constituted committee thereof shall determine whether a conflict exists and in the case of an existing conflict, whether the contemplated transaction may be authorized as just, fair, and reasonable to Friends of the Orphans. The decision of the board or a duly constituted committee thereof on these matters will rest in their sole discretion, and their concern must be the welfare of Friends of the Orphans and the advancement of its purpose.

Form 990 - Federal General Footnote

Description

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 (Supplemental Information continued) Each year, the NPH homes submit their budgets to the NPHI Finance Committee for recommendation and to the NPHI Board of Directors for review and approval. Friends is represented on the NPHI Board of Directors through the CEO who the Friends Board of Directors elected to serve. Upon approval by the NPHI Board of Directors, the budget is submitted to the Friends Board which reviews it and determines how much budget support it is able to commit for the upcoming year. Once the year begins, the budgets are monitored monthly by the NPHI Finance Committee of which the Friends CFO is a member. In addition, the Friends Board regularly reviews and approves out-of-budget special and capital project requests approved and monitored under the auspices of the NPHI Executive Committee. Upon approval, Friends may solicit, receive and send funds for these projects. Each year the homes submit independent audits which are received and reviewed by the Friends CFO and Treasurer. The NPHI CEO serves as a member of Friends Board of Directors and provides a report on the activities of NPHI at each quarterly meeting of the Friends Board of Directors. Friends recruits, screens and places volunteers in the NPH homes for a minimum of one year of service. In addition, Friends staff escort donor and school trips to the Homes periodically throughout the year. In all cases, they are instructed to inform the Friends CEO of any unusual or disconcerting situations observed. Finally, many members of Friends of Board of Directors and staff attend the NPHI Annual meeting held at one of the NPHI homes and have an opportunity to see one of the homes and spend time with the children and staff at the home.
