Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		A copy of the Form 990 is first reviewed and approved by the CEO and CFO. Upon management's approval, it is forwarded to the audit committee, executive committee, and governance committee to review the Form 990 prior to submission. A copy of the Form 990 is then provided to the Board of Directors before it is filed.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Each director, officer and person with substantial influence over NFG is required to review a copy of the conflict of interest policy, which requires each such person to disclose any relationships, positions or circumstances in which he or she believes could contribute to a conflict. Following full disclosure of a possible conflict of interest, the Board of Directors shall determine whether a conflict of interest exists and, if so the Board shall vote to authorize or reject the transaction or take any other action deemed necessary to address the conflict and protect NFG's best interests.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		Network for Good's Board of Directors reviews and determines the CEO's performance and total compensation. The performance and compensation of other key employees is reviewed and determined by a compensation committee. For all reviews, the compensation is based on performance metrics established by the Board of Directors as well as benchmarking data. The compensation of the CEO and other key employees is assessed and determined annually as part of their respective evaluations against those metrics and the benchmark data.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18		NFG makes its Form 1023 available upon request. NFG makes available a public disclosure copy of its Federal Form 990 on its website, upon request and on Guidestar.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		NFG makes its governing documents, certain policies (including conflict of interest policy) and financial statements available upon request based on discretion of management.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c		NFG's Audit Committee assumes responsibility for the oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. The process is consistent with previous years.
