Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		11 - No, due to the governance model that Heifer International Foundation uses the Board of Trustees determined that it had governance and monitoring in place that kept them informed of the necessary information to ensure that a properly completed 990 was being filed by management. This governance includes that the Board of Trustees hires the independent auditors, which audit not only the financial statements of the organization, but also the annual monitoring reports to ensure reporting of governance items is reported fairly to the Board of Trustees. The independent auditors are also involved in the review, filing and signing of the 990, which provides the Board of Trustees with an overall understanding as it relates to the accuracy of the 990. After the 990 is filed, it is distributed to the Board of Trustees along with a copy of the annual audited financial reports.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Yes. Heifer International Foundations Board of Trustees operates within a policy governance model with effective written governance and monitoring systems in place regarding the Board of Trustees Code of Conduct, which includes specific conflict of interest statements. Each member of the Board of Trustees is required to complete, sign and submit a Code of Conduct Form annually in which they indicate compliance with specific conflict of interest statements. These forms are submitted to the board liaison, at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees and issues of non-compliance are reported to the Board Chair. In addition, a report to the full board is included in the monitoring reports regarding compliance by individual trustees and the Board as a whole. Matters of concern regarding an individuals non-compliance and/or conflict of interest are addressed by the Board Chair and brought before the full Board when appropriate.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		Yes, we use Quatt Associates, independent consulting service, for the annual review of the Foundations salary process. Quatt evaluates each position, including the President & CEO, based on the specific job functions and a market analysis of the position is conducted using surveys of relevant comparator organizations. Depending on the position and its requirements, positions are compared either internationally, nationally or regionally to ensure compensation is competitive for the job market for each position. Ranges are then established by position with a minimum, a target and a maximum. The target of the range is based on the median salary for equivalent job descriptions in the market place and factors in the employees skill level and history with the organization. The Board conducts an annual review of the President & CEO performance over the prior year. Based on the performance and the salary recommendations obtained from Quatt, the Board then determines what the salary of the President & CEO should be for the next year. The Board is also given a copy of the Quatt recommended salary ranges for each staff member of Heifer International Foundation and their budgeted salary.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		Heifer International Foundations annual IRS Form 990 is available through Guidestar.org going back to 1998.
