UniversalGiving qualifies as a publicly supported organization based on the following facts and circumstances:

It received from 2005 through 2009 general public support of 20.10%.

UniversalGiving is in operation and is actively and continuously seeking new and additional support from the community, general public and government sectors. It's website, www.UniversalGiving.org, to date have matched thousands of volunteers and over $2 million in donations. It is in partnership with corporations as well as other non profit organizations in helping spread awareness of giving and volunteering all across the world.

The organization's founder and CEO, Pamela Hawley, for her community service, has been honored with a Jefferson Award, a prestigious national recognition system honoring community and public service in America. She was also selected as a semifinalist in Ernst & Young's prestigious Entrepreneur of the Year Award, and chosen to be a member of the Colburn S. Wilbur Fellowship Program, through the Institute on Global Ethics.

UniversalGiving has been featured on several national magazines, newspapers and television shows. This will continue to enhance the organization's visibility to the general public for potential donations.
