Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

All organizational grants require a detailed explanation of how the fund will be used. All organizations receiving grants are well established, well run and efficient.

The majority of organizational grants are renewals to organizations who have received grants from us in the past. In awarding the organizational grants, we ascertain that the funds will be used effectively to meet the specific charitable goals of the trust. For individual grants, we ascertain, often through a cleric, that the beneficiary or their family is in need, and the expenses are documents. These individual grants are paid directly to the providers.
