Part VI. Section B. Question 11A. The completed Form 990 including each required Schedule is distributed to each board member prior to a regular board meeting. At that board meeting, a vote is taken among the voting board members to approve the Form 990 and the attached Schedules prior to submission to the IRS.

Part VI. Section B. Questions 12a & 12c. There is a written conflict of interest policy in bylaws of the organization. Board members are required to abide by the bylaws of the organization, including the Conflicts of Interest policy. Due to the small size of the board and the limited amount of significant and/or extraordinary transactions, normal exercise of regular financial controls and routine reviews would illuminate any compliance issues with the Conflict of Interest policy. Any significant transactions for this organization are known by the Executive Director, the Treasurer, and/or the Board Chairman and most board members individually in adhering to budget restrictions.

Part VI. Section B. Question 15a & 15b. Extensive research is conducted by the Board of Directors to determine national salary and benefit information for each position that receives compensation. All starting salaries and pay raises or voted on by the Board of Directors. Currently, the only position that is compensated is the Executive Director. All other positions, including the Board of Directors, are strictly volunteer and receive no compensation or any other form of monetary benefit paid by or on behalf of the organization for their time or service to the organization.

Part VI. Section C. Question 19. The organization keeps applicable governance and financial documents, including Form 990, on file at its office and will produce them on request for inspection.

Part XI. Question 1. The organization is cash basis but in keeping with Generally Accepted Accounting Practices of matching revenue to expenses has capitalized prepaid expenses that relate to a fundraiser event scheduled for early next year.
