Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

FASB clarified the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in Income Taxes - Overall of the ASC. The new provisions for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes prescribe a recognition threshold and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. They also provide guidance on derecognition of tax benefits, classification on the consolidated statement of financial position, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition.

The new provisions relating to accounting for the uncertainty in income taxes provided for a deferral of the effective date of implementation for certain nonpublic enterprises to annual financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. The Foundation has elected this deferral and, accordingly, had adopted the new provisions as of January 1, 2009. The adoption of the new provisions for accounting for the uncertainty in income taxes did not have a material impact on the Foundation's consolidated financial position or statements of activities.

The Foundation adopted a policy to record interest and penalty expense related to income taxes as interest and other expense, respectively. At December 31, 2009, no interest or penalties have been or are required to be accrued. The Foundation, generally, is no longer subject to income tax examination by federal authorities for years prior to December 31, 2006.
