ELIGIBILITY

Houston Endowment Inc. makes grants to nonprofit organizations that are recognized as charitable organizations by the Internal Revenue Code.

The foundation provides funds to organizations that serve Harris County and contiguous counties.* Grants seldom are given outside of Texas and never are made outside of the United States or to individuals. The foundation prefers not to fund religious activities, fundraising events or galas.

Houston Endowment provides funds to organizations that support and promote the arts, community enhancement, education, the environment, health, human services and neighborhood development. The foundation also provides funds to organizations outside of its primary geographic scope that support and promote Texas history.

Because of Houston Endowment's commitment to the Jesse H. Jones and Mary Gibbs Jones Scholarship Program, the foundation typically does not fund other scholarship programs. (Houston Endowment does not select Jones Scholarship recipients nor does it make direct scholarship awards to individuals. Inquiries about scholarship assistance should be made to financial aid offices at colleges and universities. Information about the Jesse H. Jones and Mary Gibbs Jones Scholarships, which are awarded each year to graduating seniors from high schools in Harris County, can be obtained from principals and counselors.)

* Brazoria, Chambers, Fort Bend, Galveston, Liberty, Montgomery and Waller counties

APPLICATION

Houston Endowment accepts grant requests throughout the year and has no designated deadlines for the submission of requests. The review process typically takes up to six months, so applicants should plan accordingly if funding is needed by a certain date. The foundation has no formal or required application form.

For organizations that have received a multiyear grant, the foundation prefers to receive applications only after all payments of that grant have been made. The foundation prefers not to consider applications from an organization more frequently than once every 12 months, whether a previous application was approved or denied. The foundation also prefers not to consider second requests for a capital project for which a grant was previously made.

Elaborate presentations are discouraged, especially proposal materials that are bound, inserted in protective sleeves or prepared in other types of notebook form. In general, the form of the application is less important than the content. If possible, presentations should be made in 12-point type and on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. Submitted materials will not be returned and become the property of the foundation. Additionally, the board of directors does not entertain oral presentations from applicants. The board and staff do not participate in fundraising feasibility studies.

Applicants serving Harris County and contiguous counties should submit a complete application and include the following

A ONE-PAGE COVER LETTER FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER ON THE LETTERHEAD OF THE ORGANIZATION.

Please include

A THREE- TO FIVE-PAGE PROPOSAL.

- () A description of the organization, the nature of its work, its mission and its achievements
- () A statement about the issue that the proposed project is addressing (If statistics or opinions are included, please cite the source)
- () A list of names and qualifications of the people who will be in charge of the project

- () Amounts and sources of committed and pending funds, including the names of the funders and the amounts awarded, pledged or requested. Donations from individuals may be combined into one number

Those identified as supporting organizations (Section 509(a)(3)) will be asked to provide additional documentation regarding their classification.
- () The organization's most recent audited financial statements. If the organization's financial statements are not audited, reviewed or compiled by an independent accountant, the organization should submit internally prepared financial statements, including a statement of financial position—a balance sheet—and a statement of revenues and expenses, marked unaudited
- () A complete copy of the organization's most recently filed IRS Form 990, including Schedule A and all supporting schedules
- () A current list of the organization's board of directors or trustees. In addition to the board list, if a proposed project has a separate advisory group, please include those names

JESSE H. AND MARY GIBBS JONES SCHOLARS PROGRAM
PREVIOUS GUIDELINES FOR JONES SCHOLARS

General Information

1. Total value of each scholarship is $16,000, which is distributed in four annual payments of $4,000.
2. Scholarship recipients are required to attend a four-year accredited college or university, which include only those schools that have received their accreditation from one of the regional commissions within the six geographic areas that cover the United States.
3. Generally, college or university attendance must begin with the Fall semester immediately following graduation and continue for four consecutive years. However, a reasonable break in continuous education may be allowed, subject to approval by Houston Endowment of a recipient's written request, for pursuit of a service activity or an educational endeavor that is part of an organized program of a qualified nonprofit organization or academic institution and is not a profit-making venture for the participant.
4. Recipients must enroll as full-time students and complete a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester, or a total of 24 credit hours for the full college year or its equivalent.
5. Houston Endowment will send a check to the scholarship recipient's selected college or university. The funds will be disbursed by the proper college official according to the school's usual operating procedures.
6. The scholarship may be canceled at Houston Endowment's option because of academic failure, withdrawal from school for reasons other than illness, upon the request of the recipient's college or university or because of failure to carry out the responsibilities of a scholarship recipient (see Responsibilities of the Scholarship Recipient).
7. To defer payment in case of illness, Houston Endowment must receive immediate notification from the scholarship recipient, and the recipient's attending physician should promptly provide a letter verifying an inability to attend school.
8. It is the recipient's responsibility to determine what income tax, if any, is due on his or her scholarship (see Taxability of Scholarships).
9. Scholarships cannot be transferred or assigned by recipients.

Responsibilities of the Scholarship Recipient

1. Before July 1 of the freshman year, the scholarship recipient must send Houston Endowment a copy of an acceptance letter from the college or university that he or she will attend. Do not send the original letter. Important: If Houston Endowment does not receive a copy of an acceptance letter by August 1, the scholarship will be canceled.
2. Before June 1 of each year thereafter, the recipient must send Houston Endowment an email stating his or her intention to return to the college or university of record.

3. At the end of the Fall semester, the recipient must send Houston Endowment a copy of his or her grade report. At the end of the Spring semester, send an official transcript. Even though arrangements can often be made with a school's Financial Aid Office to furnish transcripts, it is the recipient's responsibility to see that Houston Endowment receives the transcript.
4. To transfer to another college or university following a full academic year, the scholarship recipient must furnish Houston Endowment with a copy of a letter of transfer acceptance from the new institution before June 1. To transfer at mid-term or before the completion of a full academic year, the recipient must make arrangements to notify Houston Endowment and each concerned institution. The previous semester's grade report and a letter of acceptance from the new institution must be sent to Houston Endowment, along with any unused portion of a scholarship so it can be sent to the new institution.

Taxability of Scholarships

1. Scholarship funds are not considered gross income for income tax purposes if the amount is received as a qualified scholarship by an individual who is a candidate for a degree at an educational institution.
 - o Qualified scholarship includes any amount received by an individual as a scholarship that the individual can prove is used for qualified tuition and related expenses.
 - o Qualified tuition is tuition and fees required for enrollment or attendance at an educational institution. Related expenses are fees, books, supplies and equipment required for courses of instruction. Scholarship funds used for other expenses, such as room and board, must be included in gross income.
2. Each scholarship recipient is responsible for determining whether a scholarship, in whole or in part, must be included in gross income. In other words, the recipient is responsible for determining what portion of the grant was used for qualified tuition and related expenses.
3. Recipients should contact a tax advisor for assistance or see IRS Publication 970 – Tax Benefits for Education, available on the IRS web site at: <http://www.irs.gov/formspubs/index.html>

BY-LAWS
OF
HOUSTON ENDOWMENT INC.

AS AMENDED ON SEPTEMBER 15, 2009

BY-LAWS
HOUSTON ENDOWMENT INC.,
a Texas Non-Profit Corporation

ARTICLE I
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers, Number and Classification. The property and affairs of Houston Endowment Inc. (the "Corporation") shall be managed and controlled by the Board of Directors. Subject to the restrictions imposed by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-laws, the Board of Directors shall elect directors as set forth below and shall exercise all of the powers of the Corporation.

The number of directors of the Corporation shall be not less than five (5) nor more than thirteen (13) persons. In the event the President of the Corporation is also serving in the capacity of Chief Executive Officer, he or she shall serve as a member of the Board of Directors by virtue of his or her position (ex officio), with all rights and authority afforded to directors generally, including voting rights. All other directors shall be divided into three classes, Class I, Class II, and Class III. Such classes shall be as equal in number as possible.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. At each annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall elect directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. Each director shall serve until the commencement of the third annual meeting following the annual meeting at which such director was elected, or such earlier annual meeting as the Board of Directors shall designate as the expiration of the term upon election of the director based upon the designation of the director's class. A director whose term expires at the commencement of such annual meeting is not eligible to vote at that annual meeting for the election of directors and officers but may be elected at that meeting by the continuing directors to succeed himself or herself.

Notwithstanding the above, a director's service as a director shall terminate automatically at the commencement of the annual meeting following the first to occur of (i) his or her 75th birthday or (ii) the twelfth anniversary of his or her election to the Board of Directors.

At each annual meeting, a director chosen to succeed a director whose term has expired or whose service has terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2 by reason of age or anniversary of service, shall be a member of the same class as the director he or she succeeds; provided, however, if a change in the authorized number of directors occurs, the Board of Directors shall designate one or more expired or terminated directorships as directorships of another class in order to maintain classes as equal in number as possible. In the case of a change in the authorized number of directors, each incumbent director shall continue as a director of the class of which such director is a member until the expiration of the director's then-current term, or the director's prior death, resignation, disqualification, or removal. No decrease in the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director.

Section 3. Chair of the Board. The Chair of the Board shall be elected from among the members of the Board of Directors by the majority vote of those directors who served as directors of the Corporation during the previous year.

Each new Chair shall be elected to an initial two-year term. Following the initial two-year term, the serving Chair may be elected to an additional one-year term upon the vote of 75 percent of the directors who served as directors of the Corporation during the previous year. Total service as Chair is limited to three years.

Members of the Board who are also employees of the Corporation are not eligible to serve as Chair of the Board.

Such vote shall be taken by secret ballot, which ballots shall be opened by the Secretary of the Corporation in the presence of all the members of the Board of Directors in attendance at the annual meeting.

The Chair of the Board shall be responsible for leading the Board of Directors and shall preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors, unless the Chair of the Board is not present at any such meeting, in which case the Chair of the Board may designate a temporary chair to preside over any such meeting or, in the absence of such a designation, the directors present at any such meeting shall elect a temporary chair to so preside.

Section 4. Removal. Any director may be removed from office, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or at any special meeting of the Board of Directors called for that purpose.

Section 5. Vacancy. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, whether caused by an increase in the authorized number of directors or otherwise, may be filled at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or at any special meeting called for that purpose by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office even if such constitutes less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy caused by the death, resignation or removal of a director shall be elected to the class and for the unexpired term of the predecessor in office.

Section 6. Meetings. The directors may hold their meetings, have an office and keep the books of the Corporation at such place or places within the State of Texas as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine; provided, however, that in the absence of any such determination, such meetings shall be held, an office maintained, and books kept at the registered office of the Corporation within the State of Texas.

Section 7. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the office of the Corporation, or at such other place within the State of Texas as may be designated by the Board of Directors, on such date and at such time as shall be determined by the Board of Directors, for the purposes of (i) electing directors, (ii) appointing officers for the ensuing year, and (iii) transacting such other business as may be brought before such meeting.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on such dates and at such times and places as shall be determined, from time to time, by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held whenever called by (i) the Chair of the Board, or (ii) a majority of the directors then in office. Subject to Article V of these By-laws, unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all matters pertaining to the purposes of the Corporation may be considered and acted upon at a special meeting.

Section 10. Notice of Meetings. The Secretary of the Corporation shall cause reasonable notice of each annual, regular and special meeting of the Board of Directors to be given to each director. In no event shall more than five (5) days notice of any such meeting be required. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 11. Quorum. A majority of the directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Directors present by proxy shall not be counted toward a quorum. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of those present may reschedule the meeting for a later date when a quorum can be secured. The act of a majority of the directors present in person or by proxy at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-laws.

Section 12. Proxies. A director may vote in person or by a written proxy executed by the director. No proxy shall be valid after three months from the date of its execution. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable, and unless otherwise made irrevocable by law.

Section 13. Compensation. Directors may be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses, if any, incurred (i) by attendance at each annual, regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof and (ii) in connection with the performance of their duties as a director of the Corporation. Directors shall receive such compensation for their services as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

Section 14. Advisory Directors. The Board of Directors, by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office, may from time to time elect one or more advisory directors for terms of one year, expiring at the commencement of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors next following such election. An advisory director so elected shall be invited to attend such meetings of the Board of Directors as the Chair of the Board may determine. Advisory directors may be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses, if any, incurred (i) by attendance at any annual, regular or special meeting and (ii) in connection with the performance of their duties as an advisory director of the Corporation. Advisory directors shall receive such compensation for services as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time. An advisory director may be elected to succeed himself or herself without limit on the number of terms.

Section 15. Committees. The Board of Directors, by resolution or resolutions adopted at the annual meeting by a majority of the directors then in office, may designate from among its members one or more committees, each of which shall be composed of two or more directors. Committee members shall serve a one year term, expiring at the commencement of the next succeeding annual meeting, and shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the affairs of the Corporation as such is set forth in such resolution or resolutions.

The Board of Directors may from time to time designate that certain committees also include non-members of the board. The Board, by resolution, will define the terms and other parameters of service for such committee members, who shall be known as "independent members." The Board will act to appoint any independent members to its committees. Such members shall not have voting rights. They may be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses, if any, incurred (i) by attendance at any committee meeting and (ii) in connection with the performance of their duties as an independent member of the committee.

Section 16. Nomination Committee. The Chair of the Board and two or more directors appointed by the Chair from time to time shall constitute a Nomination Committee; provided, however, that the President shall not be eligible to serve on the Nomination Committee. The sole duties and responsibilities of the Nomination Committee shall be the consideration of persons as potential nominees for director, advisory director, officer, and independent member of a committee and the nomination of persons for election as director, advisory director, officer, or independent member of a committee.

Section 17. Action of Directors without a Meeting. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by all of the directors.

Section 18. Participation in Meetings by Telephone. Subject to applicable notice requirements, including requirements regarding waiver of such notice, the directors of the Corporation may participate in and hold a meeting of such Board or any committee thereof by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all directors participating in such meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting by a director shall constitute presence in person by such director at any such meeting, except where a director participates in such a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that such meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE II.OFFICERS

Section 1. Titles and Terms of Office. At each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the Board shall appoint, as officers of the Corporation, a Chief Executive Officer, a President, one or more Vice-Presidents (any of whom may be designated Executive Vice President) a Secretary and a Treasurer, and may appoint one or more Assistant Secretaries and one or more Assistant Treasurers. Each officer shall hold office until a successor shall have been duly chosen and qualified, or until such officer shall have resigned or shall have been removed, in the manner provided in these By-laws. Any vacancy in any of such offices may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose.

Section 2. Chief Executive Officer. The President or the Chair of the Board shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, as specified by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Chief Executive Officer shall have overall responsibility for the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, under the direction and subject to the control of the Board of Directors. The Chief Executive Officer shall have authority to sign, endorse, execute and deliver, in the name of the Corporation, all securities, promissory notes and other debt obligations, deeds, mortgages, contracts, and other undertakings and instruments, except in cases when the signing or execution thereof shall have been expressly delegated by the Board of Directors exclusively to another officer or agent of the Corporation.

Section 3. President. The President shall perform all of the duties commonly incident to the office and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors and, in the event the Chair of the Board serves in the capacity of Chief Executive Officer, such duties as the Chief Executive Officer may from time to time designate.

Section 4. Vice-President. Each Vice-President shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President.

Section 5. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors in books provided for that purpose; shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these By-laws or as required by law; shall be custodian of the records of the Corporation; and, in general, shall perform all duties incident to the office of a secretary of a corporation and such other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President.

Section 6. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have charge of and be responsible for all funds, securities, receipts and disbursements of the Corporation, and shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the name of the Corporation, all monies or other valuable effects in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall, from time to time, be selected by the Board of Directors; shall render to the Chief Executive Officer, the President and the Board of Directors, whenever requested, an account of the financial condition of the Corporation; and, in general, shall perform all duties incident to the office of a treasurer of a corporation and such other duties as may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President.

Section 7. Assistant Officers. The Board of Directors may appoint Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers. Each Assistant Secretary and each Assistant Treasurer shall hold office for such period as the Board of Directors may prescribe. Any Assistant Secretary may perform any of the duties or exercise any of the powers of the Secretary at the request or in the absence or disability of the Secretary or otherwise as occasion may require in the administration of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and any Assistant Treasurer may perform any of the duties or exercise any of the powers of the Treasurer at the request or in the absence or disability of the Treasurer or otherwise as occasion may require in the administration of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each Assistant Secretary and each Assistant Treasurer shall perform such other duties and exercise such other powers, if any, as the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President may prescribe from time to time. To establish the authority of an Assistant Secretary or an Assistant Treasurer to take any action on behalf of the Corporation in place of the Secretary or the Treasurer, as the case may be, it shall not be necessary to furnish proof of the request of, or the absence or disability of, the Secretary or Treasurer or any other Assistant Secretary or Assistant Treasurer, respectively.

Section 8. Other Officers. The Board of Directors may appoint such other officers as it may deem desirable, including honorary officers. Each such officer shall hold office for such period, have such authority and perform such duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe from time to time.

Section 9. Holding Two or More Offices. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President and Secretary.

Section 10. Compensation. Officers shall receive such compensation for their services as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time. In addition, officers may be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the performance of their duties as an officer of the Corporation.

Section 11. Removal. Any officer of the Corporation may be removed from office, with or without cause, by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or at any special meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to all directors, advisory directors, officers, and independent members of any committees (including former directors, advisory directors, officers and independent members of any committees), of the Corporation for any and all liabilities, charges, expenses and costs (including court costs and attorney's fees) incurred by such person in connection with or arising out of any claim asserted against such person, by an action in court or otherwise, by reason of his or her being or having been such a director, advisory director, officer, or independent member of a committee by such his or her serving or having served at the request of the Corporation as a director, advisory director, officer, independent member of a committee, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, all to the maximum extent allowed by Texas law in effect at such time. This indemnification shall be in addition to that provided by applicable law and that provided by any insurance policy which may be obtained by the Corporation for such purpose. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall not indemnify or advance expenses to any director, advisory director, officer or other person if such indemnification or advance would constitute an act of self-dealing under Section 4941 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or a taxable expenditure under Section 4945 of such Code.

ARTICLE IV.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on December 31 of each year.

Section 2. Notice and Waiver of Notice. When any notice is required to be given under the provisions of these By-laws, such notice shall be deemed to be sufficient if given in person, by electronic device or telephone or by depositing the same in a post office box in a sealed postpaid wrapper addressed to the person entitled thereto at his post office address as it appears on the books of the Corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day of such mailing. A waiver of notice signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to receipt of such notice.

Section 3. Resignations. Any director, advisory director or officer may resign at any time. Any resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Chair of the Board, the President or the Secretary. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.

Section 4. Depositories. All funds of the Corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time, upon such terms and conditions as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may authorize from time to time the opening and keeping of general and special bank accounts with any such depository as it may designate and may make special rules and regulations with respect thereto as it may deem expedient and consistent with the provisions of these By-laws.

ARTICLE V.

AMENDMENTS

These By-laws may be amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors. These By-laws may be amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at any special meeting of the Board of Directors if notice of the proposed amendment or repeal is contained in the notice of such special meeting.
