MEETING THE CRITICAL NEEDS OF HOMELESS CHILDREN Mission & Purpose Metro Dallas Homeless Alliance reports that approximately 5,675 homeless individuals living in Dallas County in 2009. For the fourth year in a row, women and children represent over half of the total homeless population (54%). On any given night in the Dallas area, the largest representation of homeless children will be in the age group of 1-3 years (23%), with the second largest age group being 4-6 years (18%), this is just one of the counties that Captain Hope's Kids serves. The mission of Captain Hope's Kids is to meet the critical needs of homeless children. It is the only agency that actively solicits donations and funds for the sole purpose of providing critically needed supplies to homeless children throughout this region. In 2009, Captain Hope's Kids distributed an estimated $689,665 worth of critically needed items to a collaborative network of 39 homeless service providers in North Texas. We provided 416,650 diapers or training pants - that is 8,210 diapers or training pants each week. We also supplied more than $186,356 school uniforms, supplies and back packs to children trying to attend school while living in a homeless shelter. Captain Hope's Kids addresses the immediate needs of the many infants, toddlers and children struggling to survive and overcome the most difficult of circumstances during their most precious years. It is our goal to meet the needs of these children so that they may become healthy and productive citizens in our community. Programs & Services Life's Necessities For Babies and Toddlers The increasing number of homeless families with babies creates a sharp rise in the need for diapers, wipes, ointment, formula, baby food and baby toiletries. Because homeless parents are often unable to afford these items, many infants suffer poor health and hygiene. Improper nutrition and the resulting depressed immune system can set the stage for years of poor health. Last year we distributed more than 8,012 diapers every week. Captain Hope's Kids provides life's necessities for the most vulnerable of the homeless - babies and toddlers. For School Age Children A survey of Metroplex shelters revealed that education is a critical long-term need of a homeless child and the key to breaking the cycle of homelessness. Captain Hope's Kids provides basics that homeless children, ages 4 to 17, need to attend and stay in school, including school uniforms, shirts, pants, skirts, shoes, socks, underwear, school supplies, toys and athletic equipment. We accept new and gently used items through individual donations and company-sponsored drives. Homelessness has a devastating impact on homeless children's educational opportunities. Without basic toiletries, school supplies and clothing, children are less likely to do well in school. Distributing critical items to homeless children allows homeless parents to devote more energy to activities that will help them to break out of homelessness. Recreational Activities Program This program provides funds for homeless children to participate in activities with the Dallas Mavericks and Texas Rangers. These activities provide opportunities for children to get out of the shelter setting, learn more about the world around them and have fun. In 2009, we provided $55,300 in recreational activities to homeless children. Hope-N-Box This program provides a simple, gift-wrapped shoebox filled with small gifts, toiletries, and special surprises for homeless children who are celebrating their birthdays while living in a shelter. By volunteering to create birthday summer fun or hygiene boxes for children of all ages and backgrounds have the opportunity to help other children who are less fortunate. We hope that you will join the growing number of those who stand behind our efforts to give homeless children a reason to smile.
