Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Program Service Expenses 146,621, Grants and allocations 0, Revenue

144,914 The Outreach Program draws people to the river through such events as the Amazing Bronx River Flotilla and the Bronx River festival. It engages people in river restoration and greenway projects, enabling them to take an active part in both their design and implementation. By interacting with the wider community, the Outreach Program recruits and motivates the volunteers who participate in key restoration and other projects Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 11A The Alliance's Executive Director reviews (and edits as necessary) the Form 990, and then one or more directors of the Board reviews the form. The Form 990 is then provided to all directors of the board before it is filed, and the Form is placed on the agenda of a Board meeting with the report of the reviewing director(s)

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 12C The Alliance distributes the conflict of interest policy to board directors annually and to all new directors and employees as part of their orientation. Board directors sign the conflict of interest policy and turn in a copy annually, to ensure their awareness of its provisions. The policy is discussed regularly and is the subject of staff and board training. The executive director monitors compliance and raises any questions of directors' noncompliance, if they were to arise, with the board's governance committee. Employees who discover a violation of the policy are required to promptly notify the executive director. Violation and failures to report violations are subject to corrective action up to and including immediate dismissal

Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15A The compensation of the Alliance's Executive Director is contemporaneous substantiation of the decision policy, and financial statements available to the public at its office during regular business hours with adequate prior notice ☐ ☐
