9. (b) Initially recipients were limited to graduating seniors of Covington High School, Covington, Louisiana who plan to enter a four (4) year college or university and major in a field of science or the field of secondary education. The class of individuals eligible for the scholarship may be expanded to graduating seniors of other high schools in the State of Louisiana (particularly Tara High School, Baton Rouge, Louisiana). In 2001 the class of individuals was increased to include graduating seniors who planned to major in Agriculture. A separate scholarship is awarded to members in this group. The recipients are selected based upon merit. See Part III, Item 3 for additional selection criteria.

1. (a) A $2,000.00 scholarship (gift) will be awarded for the recipient's freshman year in a four year college or university with funding to be provided in the amount of $1,000.00 per semester upon evidence of enrollment in a college or university of the recipient's choice. Currently there is only one category of scholarship benefit with recipients being limited to graduating seniors of Covington High School, Covington, Louisiana; however, if funding is available additional scholarships may be awarded to graduating seniors of other high schools in the State of Louisiana (particularly Tara High School, Baton Rouge, Louisiana). The recipients are to be selected from a group of five (5) nominees named by the senior class advisor and the assistant principal responsible for academics at Covington High School (or other respective high schools). The foundation trustee will select the recipient from among the five (5) nominees based upon merit. To be nominated, a student should:
- 1) be a graduating senior,
  - 2) who has excelled in a college preparatory curriculum with a strong emphasis in science and math,
  - 3) who plans to attend a four year college or university and major in the field of science or secondary education,
  - 4) who has a high overall grade point average,
  - 5) who has demonstrated leadership ability and
  - 6) who has participated in extracurricular activities.
- Nominees desiring to be considered shall submit to the selection committee (trustees of The Boyd Foundation Charitable Trust) a resume, transcript, background information and a short essay on why the nominee should be selected.
- (b) A second scholarship of $1,500 (gift) will be awarded to a graduating senior who will major in Agriculture or a related field. All of the other conditions stated above apply to this second scholarship.
