Page 2, Part III

The Riley Foundation is a non-profit organization that works to educate the entire community regarding substance abuse issues.

Our program services will further our exempt purposes as a charitable and educational organization that provides grants for individuals to receive quality treatment for the disease of addiction. Our organization's mission is to provide assistance and education to people affected by the disease of addiction. Our goal is to assist individuals struggling with addiction to find the resources needed to successfully live a productive and happy life.

The Foundation will rely on funding support from the general public in the form of freewill contributions. Donors may be individuals, churches, ministries, businesses, communities and other public and private entities. The funds will assist The Riley Foundation to provide services enabling individuals who are in recovery to obtain employment, housing assistance and legal help as necessary. The Funds will also be used to provide workshops for children of parents in recovery to assist with the healing process of both children and parents.

Our major activities include:

A. Transitional services 25%

We will assist people in recovery to obtain employment, housing assistance and legal assistance as appropriate to enable them to transition into a productive life while recovering from their addictions.

B. Supportive Services 25%

We will assist individuals seeking recovery to enter into a treatment program for their addictions. The assistance may include making referrals to outside non-profit or for-profit treatment facilities.

C. Community Education 25%

We will provide the community with education on the disease of addiction, through workshops and seminars.

D. Education of Families 25%

We will provide free workshops for children of parents who are in recovery to help families connect and heal together.

In 2008, one individual was helped through the Riley Foundation. In 2009, The Riley Foundation was able to serve over 60 individuals by assisting the children of individuals that are in recovery. By 2010, The Riley Foundation is confident that it can achieve the goal of assisting over 200 people. The objective for each and every client that is served by The Riley Foundation is long-term sobriety, and a productive and happy life, which in-turn will build a healthier and stronger community.
