Request for Extension of time to file for Change of Accounting Period Pursuant to Rev. Proc 85-58.

Upon signing and preparing to mail this short year return prepared by our new CPA, (Christy A. McPherson, 101 E. Bullion St. Ste. 2G, Hailey, ID 83333) we discovered that we have not timely filed our Form 1128, Application for Change of Accounting Period which was due by the 15th day of the 5th month following the new December 31 year-end, which was May 15th, 2010. We were unaware that this form was not allowed to be covered by the extension that we timely filed for the actual form 990. We have recently electronically filed our 2008 form 990 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009, so we are current on all of our tax filings.

We would respectfully request that you allow our Change of Accounting period request because we are less than 90 days late in filing the form 1128, and this error was unintentional. We are being required to file the form 1128 because our prior CPA changed our accounting period within the last 10 years, and this has not been an acceptable reporting time period for our organization because of the timing of our fundraising event held annually in mid-August, which is why we are now requesting a change to return to our original calendar year accounting period. This change will allow us to report all of the results of the fundraising event accurately within the one calendar year return.

"Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this request, including accompanying documents, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts presented in support of this request are true, correct, and complete."
