Revenue Code, thus the corporation is not liable for income taxes. The Foundation is, however, subject to tax on income from any unrelated business.

On January 1, 2009, the Foundation adopted the recognition requirements for uncertain income tax positions as required by generally accepted accounting principles ASC 740-10 (formerly known as FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes), with no cumulative effect adjustment required. ASC 740-10 prescribed a comprehensive model for how an organization should measure, recognize, present, and disclose in its financial statements uncertain tax positions that an organization has taken or expects to take on a tax return. The Foundation has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and Idaho State Statutes. The Foundation believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse affect on the Foundation's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. Accordingly, the Foundation has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain income tax positions at December 31, 2009.

The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any periods in progress. The Foundation believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2006.

The Foundation's policy is to classify income tax related interest and penalties, if any, in interest expense and other expenses, respectively.
