7) Marketing: The "Marketing Initiative" promotes the development of export markets for local products. This is currently being done through the creation of the Dominion Trading Co., an international sales and marketing coffee company. Vision

For years, helping countries in need has been driven by a model based on "charity aid assistance" - giving handouts to the needy. But this kind of aid creates a dependency that cripples people. NCF brings a new and invigorating model to missions: helping people to become self-sufficient

Strategy

NCF's strategy is to implement the principles of a "business as missions" organization. It focuses on partnering with people in developing nations to instill sustainable business practices while meeting the core needs of individuals and their communities.

To enable the people of Ethiopia to be self-sufficient in all areas of their lives,

NCF has created seven unique "Initiatives":

* Church Planting, Health Care, Education and Personal Assistance Initiatives all help foster "Community Development".

* The Finance, Innovation, and Marketing initiatives all help promote

Mission

The mission of the New Covenant Foundation is to:

☐* Proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ

☐* Break the bonds of dependency on foreign aid by empowering individuals and communities to be self-sufficient

☐ Create a mutual partnership with people that enable long-term sustainability of their economy, their environment, and their community.

Initiatives

1) Church Planting: The focus of New Covenant Foundation is to reach people for Jesus Christ. The Church Planting Initiative supports local church planters. Instead of bringing in foreign missionaries, NCF believes that the most effective way to spread Christ's love is to enable people in their own country to minister to their own people.

Currently NCF is supporting 40 church planters. In the past six years these forty church planters have shared the gospel with over 66,000 people; nearly 5,000 people have received Christ as their savior and 40 new churches have been started. Today there are more than sixty additional trained church planters ready to be sent as soon as funding is available

2) Health care: The "Health Care Initiative's" initial focus is on the

"preventative" not "curative" process. This is accomplished by providing basic health information throughout rural communities. The training covers topics such as water purification, sanitation, agriculture, nutrition, maternal care and childcare, home care, prevention of disease including HIV/AIDS. Through 12-31-09, over 450 local community and church leaders had been trained in Community Health Education. They shared this information in 105 communities to over 400,000 people. Preliminary results show and estimated 50% reduction in the infant mortality rate and malnutrition rate.

3) Education: This Initiative is designed to empower communities by promoting literacy, training teachers, building an educational infrastructure, and providing basic education in the areas of business and health. To-date, tuition for seven nursing students has been provided

4) Assistance: The "Assistance Initiative" looks directly at the needs of deeply disadvantaged people. Although the New Covenant Foundation seeks to move beyond a handout -based approach-the unique needs of widows, orphans and the homeless call for unique solutions. NCF is currently providing financial support for two orphanages in Soddo, Ethiopia.

5) Financial: NCF's "Finance Initiative" is designed to provide short-term financial assistance to Ethiopia through a variety of loan programs and partnerships with individuals and organizations. To-date this includes a loan to local coffee businessmen and farmers to purchase a coffee washing plant and funding to begin a food production facility

6) Innovation: Creative technology is the foundation for long-term sustainability.

The "Innovation Initiative" helps communities learn skills to increase their productivity and income levels and, more importantly, to sustain the long-term health of their economy and their environment with creative solutions that fit their needs.

Projects include coffee processing equipment upgrades, environmental remediation and coffee yield
