	Part I, Line 1a	The Foundation reimburses Debra Gill a portion of her social membership dues at Riverside Country Club. The reimbursable business portion is figured by taking the business portion of Debra's monthly bill as a percent of total charges and taking that percentage times the total dues. The personal portion of the social membership dues are reported as taxable income to Debra Gill.
	Part I, Line 5	The Board establishes goals each year and if met, there is compensation tied to them. All such compensation is reviewed by independent compensation specialists on an annual basis. Incentive compensation is determined by net revenues of the Organization. This applies to all Officers and Senior Administration that receive compensation and includes incentive compensation reflected in Part II, column B(ii). The discussions and process are performed and documented by Bozeman Deaconess Health Service's Board, then provided to the Board of the Foundation for usage. The compensation review was performed during 2009.
