Part III, Line 1a		The value of collection items, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the Museum's inception, are not recognized as assets on the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. There were no deaccessions or insurance recoveries in the current year.
Part III, Line 4		The Museum's collections are made up of artwork and research collections that are held for public exhibition, educational, and research purposes. All works of art and collections are protected, kept unencumbered, cared for, and preserved, and are subject to strict organizational policies governing their use. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections. Based upon independent appraisers and other factors, management estimates the fair market value of the collection was approximately $232,000,000 at December 31, 2009. During 2009, no collection items were deaccessioned.
Part V, Line 4	Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	General Endowment: Once the endowment reaches its goal, it is the intention to use the income to support the operations of the Museum. Abiquiu Endowment: Income from the endowment is to be used to maintain the Abiquiu and Ghost Ranch houses. Book Award: Income from the endowment is used to fund an annual book award. Research Center Endowment: Income from the endowment is used to fund scholarships and Research Center programs.
