	Central Washington Health Services Association (CWHSA) provides quality medical healthcare regardless of race, creed, sex, national origin, handicap, age or ability to pay. Although reimbursement for services rendered is critical to the operation and stability of CWHSA, it is recognized that not all individuals possess the ability to purchase essential medical services and, further, that our mission is to service the community with respect to providing healthcare services and healthcare education. Therefore, in keeping with the Hospital's commitment to service all members of its community, free care and/or subsidized care, care provided to persons covered by governmental programs at below cost, and health activities and programs to support the community will be considered where the need and/or individuals' inability to pay co-exists. These activities include wellness programs, community education programs, and special programs for the elderly, handicapped, medically underserved, and a variety of broad community support activities. CWHSA serviced 9,082 in-patients and provided more than 37,336 days of care during 2009. Charity Care is also provided through many reduced price services and free programs offered throughout the year based on activities and services which CWHSA believes will service a bona fide community health need.
