Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2		A spousal relationship and a Father/Son relationship exist within the executive management group
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The credit union's members have rights to elect the members of the governing body. The credit union's members also receive a share of the organization's profits or excess dues in the form of cash dividends.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		Members of the credit union have the right to elect one or more members of the organization's governing body, whether periodically, or as vacancies arise, or otherwise.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b		Members of the credit union have the right to approve the governing body's election and removal of members of the governing body, as well as other matters that are subject to the approval of members of the credit union as they occur.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		Our Form 990 Tax Filing is reviewed by WECU's Accounting Manager and VP/CFO in detail. It is compared to our previous year's return, tied back to our financial statements and our general ledger records. Then, it is reviewed by our President/CEO prior to filing. A copy of Form 990 is provided to the Board of Directors Prior to Filing.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		WECU's Conflict of Interest Policy focuses on defining and preventing conflicts of interest. Before engaging in any activity, transaction, or before entering into any relationship that might give rise to a conflict of interest, employees must seek review from their managers, the Internal Auditor or the Human Resources Department. WECU's HR department, staff liaison and Internal Auditor are responsible for ensuring that no conflict of interests occur that could have a negative effect on WECU. If anyone suspects a conflict of interest, it is reported to management, the staff liaison, the HR department or the Internal Auditor. WECU has various annual reviews and controls in place to monitor situations in which a conflict of interest might arise, which are performed by management or our Internal Auditor.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		To ensure that pay rates are competitive within the marketplace, the credit union participates in a number of industry-specific salary/compensation surveys such as those sponsored by Credit Union National Association (CUNA), Credit Union Executive Society (CUES), and the Washington Bank and Credit Union Salary and Benefit Survey. Utilizing data from these surveys, WECU's President/CEO and EVP determine the overall salary structure for the credit union. They also make the final determination for increases to compensation for all staff members, including officers and key employees, after receiving proposals and feedback from management, cross-referencing the requests to the surveys mentioned above and determining how these expenses will fit into the overall credit union budget and strategic plan. The EVP's compensation is reviewed by the President/CEO, and changes are recommended by the President/CEO. Compensation for the President/CEO is determined by the details of the employment contract set forth between the Board of Directors and the President/CEO.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		WECU has a Member Rights Policy in which we stipulate how our members can request and receive credit union corporate records, which include our Articles and Bylaws, minutes of membership meetings and annual financial report, financial reports and forms, code of ethics, board governance policies, and board of directors and supervisory committee names. A member request must be submitted in writing to the credit union and specifically identify the disclosable records requested. The credit union may require the member to sign a Confidentiality Agreement to protect the credit union from unauthorized disclosure of certain proprietary information. If any documents contain member information, it will be expunged from the document before being provided to the public.
