Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The IRS Form 990 is submitted for signature by the president of the Board of Directors. Then a time is scheduled to present the return to the Board of Directors after being filed by the auditing accountant. At the scheduled board meeting the accountant gives an overview of the filing and consolidated financial statements to the members and leaves the floor open for questions. A vote is then taken and recorded to approve and authorize signature, if appropriate, of the Form 990.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board-delegated powers shall annually sign a statement that affirms such person has received a copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy, has read and understood the policy, has agreed to comply with the policy and understands that the agency is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption and avoid the appearance of conflict, it must engage primarily in activities that accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. Periodic reviews shall be conducted and at a minimum include the following subjects: (a) Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and is the result of arm's-length bargaining; (b) Whether partnerships, joint ventures and arrangements with management organizations conform to the agency's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		(15a) The Executive Director is hired by the Executive Board acting as the Personnel Committee. The board is responsible for writing a job description, setting compensation levels, interviewing, negotiating compensation packages and conducting annual reviews. This committee then reports their decision back to the Board of Directors. (15b) A Personnel Committee consisting of the Executive Board and the Executive Director is empowered to write job descriptions, set compensation, perform the interviews and make a decision as a group as to the best candidate for other key positions within the organization.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The Whatcom County Council on Aging makes all of its financial statements, governing documents and conflict of interest policy available to the general public upon request.
