Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Part I, Line 1a	First Class Travel or Charter Travel or Travel of Companions The Providence Expense Reimbursement Procedures include the following policies. Air travel is reimbursable for tourist or economy class only and should be at the least expensive airfare, which permits departures and arrivals at reasonable times and reasonable distance traveled. Employees are encouraged to plan in advance to get available discounts. Airline frequent flyer upgrades will never be reimbursed. Spouse travel will be reimbursed by the organization if the spouse is required to attend or is invited to a Providence-sponsored meeting. A spouse's travel expenses that are reimbursed by the organization and that are not for bona fide business purposes are considered a taxable benefit by the IRS and are included on the employee's Form W-2. Tax Indemnifications or Gross-Up Payments Providence Health & Services follows the federal and state taxation laws related to relocation expenses paid to the employee or to a third party on the employee's behalf. They are considered income and are therefore subject to payroll taxes. Based on the way Providence has chosen to pay the relocation expenses, Providence reports reimbursements and payments to vendors as income and these expense payments are reflected on the executive's Form W-2. Providence will gross-up the relocation benefits to offset the personal tax burden to the employee for IRS allowable expenses. Discretionary Spending Account Providence Health & Services provides an executive flex spending allowance per year (paid bi-weekly). It is provided in lieu of a car allowance, additional executive life or disability insurance, spouse travel, club dues and similar executive benefits. Housing Allowance or Residence for Personal Use Providence Health & Services provides housing allowances for purposes of relocation assistance only. Providence may pay temporary living expenses for the employee up to a maximum of 60 calendar days. Covered expenses are rent (excluding "rent" which may be paid in order to occupy a new permanent residence until the title clears) and utilities, including heat, electricity, gas, water, local internet and local telephone and garbage services. The vice president/chief human resources officer may approve temporary housing assistance for up to six months when family relocation is delayed to accommodate the school year or equivalent circumstances. Only in extenuating circumstances is housing extended beyond this six month period.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6		The Member of the Corporation is Providence Health & Services - Oregon
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		The Corporate Member has the power to 1) Fix the number of Directors, select the Directors and to remove such Directors at any time with or without cause 2) Appoint the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, determine the term of office and to remove such Chairperson with or without cause
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b		The Corporate Member has the power 1) To adopt or change the mission, philosophy, and values, including the strategic plan and mission statement 2) To amend or repeal the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws 3) To approve the acquisition of assets, the incurrence of indebtedness or the lease, sale transfer, assignment or encumbering of assets exceeding a specified threshold, or the sale or transfer of any property which may have historical or religious significance 4) To approve the establishment of any new Corporation in which this Corporation has a controlling interest 5) To approve the dissolution or liquidation 6) To approve the annual operating and capital budgets 7) To appoint the certified public accountants 8) To approve, according to established guidelines, any joint venture of corporate affiliations 9) To approve lending of corporate funds 10) To approve the closure of any institution or major ministry or work of the Corporation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		The Form 990 is prepared internally by experienced staff and reviewed by external tax advisors The Board of Directors reviewed the Form 990 prior to filing with the IRS
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Providence Health & Services maintains a conflict of interest policy that applies to board members and management of all Providence-related organizations The purpose of the policy is to guide and direct those serving the Providence Health & Services' corporations and other legal entities so they can (1) fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities and exercise stewardship in ways that promote and protect the best interests of Providence and, (2) avoid situations that create a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the interests of an individual associated with Providence and Providence On an annual basis, each board member and management level employee must complete and submit an updated conflict of interest statement Conflict of interest disclosures are reviewed by the System Integrity Department working in conjunction with the Department of Legal Affairs If it is determined that an actual conflict exists, appropriate follow-up action is taken with the individual to rectify the conflict
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		It is Providence's intention to make financial information accessible and transparent Although the filing of Form 990 provides insight into how Providence achieves its Mission, delivers its programs and stewards its finances, deciphering the information directly from Form 990 can be challenging The following paragraphs provide further information about the process we use to determine compensation for top management, officers and key employees Providence has a single fiduciary Board, with responsibility for financial oversight associated with fulfillment of the Providence Mission, developing system policies, protecting the assets entrusted to the organization and overseeing the strategic and operational affairs of Providence's legal entities Providence also maintains a network of community ministry boards with responsibility for quality of care oversight, community relations, advocacy and community needs assessments Providence has a consistent compensation philosophy for all of its employees, including our senior executives Salaries for senior executives are determined by the Providence Board's Human Resources Committee and approved by the full Board of Directors, none of whom is a Providence employee The Board retains an independent consultant each year to review salaries of those in the most significant leadership roles in the organization Part of the consultant's role is to review an extensive array of compensation surveys of large, not-for-profit health care systems in the United States Providence is one of the larger health systems in the country, and as such, the Board benchmarks executive compensation against other large, not-for-profit health systems whose revenue is similar to that of Providence Base salaries for Providence executives are set at the median level of the market, as identified by the independent consultant and reviewed with the Human Resources Committee The Providence Health & Services President/CEO utilizes the market information provided by the consultant along with formal performance evaluations, to determine salary recommendations for other senior executives This process includes a rigorous analysis of those recommendations with the Human Resources Committee as a part of the review and approval process Performance incentives allow executives to earn additional compensation if they achieve specific organizational and individual goals for furthering Providence operating principles & advancing the Providence Mission and core values, meeting benchmarks for charity care, achieving quality targets, delivering top-rated customer satisfaction, meeting employee satisfaction goals and reaching financial performance objectives The Board of Directors conducts a thorough process to ensure performance incentives are aligned with appropriate practices for not-for-profit health care systems The Board's process for executive compensation fully complies with IRS standards and mirrors the best practices recommended in the "Report to Congress and the Nonprofit Sector on Governance, Transparency, and Accountability" submitted to the Senate Finance Committee by the Panel on the Nonprofit Sector
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		Public disclosure of governing documents, conflict of interest policy and 990 filings are made available to the public upon written request All governing policies including the conflict of interest policy, as well as 990 filings are available to employees on the Intranet site
FORM 990, SCHEDULE J, PART II	EXECUTIVE PERFORMANCE AWARDS PROGRAM	The Providence Executive Performance Awards Program provides a lump sum award annually as a percent of the executive's base pay Percent opportunities are aligned with our total compensation philosophy as outlined in Part VI, Section B, Line 15 (Process for determining compensation of top management, officers & key employees) The performance award is based on the level of accomplishment of annual system objectives and personal objectives In 2009, 70 percent of the participant awards were based on pre-determined organizational goals consistent with Providence's five strategic priorities of mission driven, financially responsible, people centered, service oriented and quality focused In 2009 the percent allocation for each of these strategic priorities was Mission driven 10% Financially responsible 20% People centered 10% Service oriented 10% Quality focused 20% To ensure affordability of the program, the organization (system, region or entity) must meet a threshold of 50 percent of budgeted net operating income
