Part III, Line 1a		Collections and Exhibits During 2005 the Trust assumed operations of the Pearson Air Museum and acquired related museum assets. The assets consist of airplanes, exhibits and other collections. It is not practical to estimate the fair market value of the assets and, as such, they have not been capitalized in the accompanying Statement of Financial Position. Collections and exhibits acquired since January 1, 2006 have been capitalized and are recorded at fair market value as of the date contributed or at cost if purchased. Due to their nature, exhibits and collections are not depreciated. Part of the purpose of the trust is to promote historical education, including military history. The airplanes, exhibits and collections are a part of this history.

As this is the case, total revenue as reported on page 1 does not accurately reflect the gross revenues of the organization and the substantial role the Trust plays as it relates to historic preservation and property operations.
