The program staff at Vine Maple Place is the starting place for all grant requests. Residents of the program can put in a request with the program staff for specific needs. Upon approval of a request, program staff completes a form which is given to accounting for payment or fulfillment for the resident.

Most expenditures are either paid directly to the person providing the service (i.e. school resident is attending, automotive repair site, etc.) or are given to the resident directly in the form of gift cards to be used to meet the need. Some gift cards are used to recognize volunteers. Additionally, residents have a program where set goals are measured and gift cards can be earned by meeting those goals.
